Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Offers an introduction to the growth area of colonial and postcolonial writing in English This book combines a contextualising narrative situating key developments in imperial and postcolonial history with theoretical readings of key texts that illuminate important concepts and definitions including writing back and mimicry

Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women's writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance

Colonial and Postcolonial Cyprus Daniele Nunziata, 2020-11-16 This book analyses colonial and postcolonial writing about Cyprus before and after its independence from the British Empire in 1960 These works are understood as transnational literatures in that they navigate the liminal and layered forms of colonialism which impede the freedom of the island including the residues of British imperialism the impact of Greek and Turkish nationalisms and the ethnolinguistic border between north and south This study puts pressure on the postcolonial discipline by evaluating the unique hegemonic relationship Cyprus has with three metropolitan centres not one The print languages associated with each centre English Greek and Turkish are complicit in neo colonial activity Contemporary Cypriot writers address this in order to resist sectarian division and grapple with their deferred postcoloniality

Postcolonial Literature Dave Gunning, 2013-09-05 Introduces an array of fiction and poetry examining how writers from Africa Australasia the Caribbean Canada Ireland and South Asia have engaged with the challenges that beset postcolonial societies Discusses many of the most studied works of postcolonial literature from Disgrace through Things Fall Apart to White Teeth

British Asian fiction Sara Upstone, 2013-07-19 This is the first text to focus solely on the writing of British writers of South Asian descent born or raised in Britain Exploring the unique contribution of these writers it positions their work within debates surrounding black British diasporic migrant and postcolonial literature in order to foreground both the continuities and tensions embedded in their relationship to such terms engaging in particular with the ways in which this new generation has been denied the right to a distinctive theoretical framework through absorption into pre existing frames of reference Focusing on the diversity of contemporary British Asian experience the book engages with themes including gender national and religious identity the reality of post 9 11 Britain the post ethnic self urban belonging generational difference and youth identities as well as indicating how these writers manipulate genre and the novel form in support of their thematic concerns Proceedings of the 2023 5th International Conference on Literature, Art and Human Development (ICLAHD 2023) Elisabetta Marino, Yixiang Wang, Bootheina Majoul, Hsuan Lee, 2023-12-29 This is an open access book The 5th International Conference on Literature Art and Human Development ICLAHD 2023 was held on October 20 22 2023 in Chengdu China Literature is an art that reflects the social life and expresses the author's thoughts and feelings by shaping images with language as the means Art is a social ideology that uses images to reflect reality but is more typical than reality It includes literature painting sculpture architecture music and so on Literature is one of the forms of expression belonging to art Literature and art are difficult to separate by a clear boundary but also for people to create more infinite imagination space ICLAHD 2023 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Literature Art and Human Development research to a common forum The primary goal of the conference is to promote research and developmental activities in Literature Art and Human Development research and another goal is to promote scientific information interchange between researchers developers engineers students and practitioners working all around the world The conference will be held every year to make it an ideal platform for people to share views and experiences in Literature Art and Human Development research and related areas

Colonial Memory Sarah De Mul, 2011 Sarah De Mul is a Postdoctoral Fellow of the Research Foundation Flanders FWO Vlaanderen in the Department of Literary Studies at the University of Leuven Her publications and research interests are in the field of comparative postcolonial studies with a particular focus on gender memory and empire in Neerlandophone and Anglophone literature Postcolonial Realism and the Concept of the Political Eli Park Sorensen, 2021-04-28 As the scholarly world attunes itself once again to the specifically political this book rethinks the political significance of literary realism within a postcolonial context Generally postcolonial studies has either ignored realism or criticized it as being naïve anachronistic deceptive or complicit with colonial discourse in other words incongruous with the postcolonial This book argues that postcolonial realism is intimately connected to the specifically political in the sense that realist form is premised on the idea of a collective reality Discussing a range of literary and theoretical works Dr Sorensen exemplifies that many postcolonial writers were often faced with the realities of an unstable state a divided community inhabiting a contested social space the challenges of constructing a notion of the people often out of a myriad of local communities with different traditions and languages brought together arbitrarily through colonization The book demonstrates that the political context of realism is the sphere or possibility of civil war divided societies and unstable communities Postcolonial realism is prompted by disturbing political circumstances and it gestures toward a commonly imagined world precisely because such a notion is under pressure or absent Islamic Images and Ideas John Andrew Morrow, 2013-11-05 These 24 studies on specific symbols images and icons from the Muslim tradition are authored by scholars from around the world Divided into four sections the Divine the Spiritual the Physical and the Societal they examine theological issues such as divine unity creation wrath and justice as well as spiritual subjects such as the straight path servitude perfection the jinn intoxication and the status of Fatimah the daughter of the Prophet Muhammad Essays also explore the symbolism of physical elements such as water trees seas ships food the male sexual organ eyebrows and camels and the significance of more socially centered subjects such as the center ijtiḥād governance otherness Ashura and Arabic Drawing from the Qur'an and Sunnah the essays address these topics with tact and respect from a position that appreciates exegetical diversity while remaining within the realm of unity

The Cambridge Companion to the Postcolonial Novel Ato Quayson, 2016 This Companion provides an engaging account of the postcolonial novel from Joseph Conrad to Jean Rhys Covering subjects from disability and diaspora to the sublime and the city this Companion reveals the myriad traditions that have shaped the postcolonial literary landscape
