We Learn Nothing Tim Kreider, 2013-04-09 A New York Times political cartoonist and writer presents a collection of his most popular essays and drawings about life and government hypocrisy Jesus Outside the Lines Scott Sauls, 2015-03-01 Whether the issue of the day on Twitter Facebook or cable news is our sexuality political divides or the perceived conflict between faith and science today's media pushes each one of us into a frustrating clash between two opposing sides Polarizing us against them discussions divide us and distract us from thinking clearly and communicating lovingly with others Scott Sauls like many of us is weary of the bickering and is seeking a way of truth and beauty through the conflicts Jesus Outside the Lines presents Jesus as this way Scott shows us how the words and actions of Jesus reveal a response that does not perpetuate the destructive fray Jesus offers us a way forward away from harshness caricatures and stereotypes In Jesus Outside the Lines you will experience a fresh perspective of Jesus who will not and should not fit into the sides Living in Sin Jason Micheli, 2019-06-02 Facing death the challenges and blessings of marriage come into focus Pastor Jason Micheli had performed dozens of weddings when he was diagnosed with incurable cancer Suddenly his own marriage and his struggles to live up to its potential came into sharp relief Following up on his acclaimed and hilarious memoir Cancer Is Funny Micheli chronicles his deep love for his wife Ali in Living in Sin He doesn't deserve her he knows but he also knows this no one deserves the grace that comes in a loving marriage And that grace is infused into marriage by God alone Micheli's marriage is tested by cancer even pushed to the brink But with wit and biblical insight he shows how his illness puts a laser focus on what really matters in marriage forgiveness laughter and more forgiveness Living in Sin will be an inspiration and challenge to any married couple A Fragile Life Todd May, 2017-03-01 His discussion of the ways in which those who try to make themselves invulnerable undermine what makes us most human is clear and bracing Los Angeles Review of Books In a moving examination of life and the trials that beset it Todd May shows that our fragility our ability to suffer is actually one of the most important aspects of our humanity May starts with a simple but hard truth suffering is inevitable At the most basic level we suffer physically a sprained ankle or a bad back But we also suffer insults and indifference We suffer from overburdened schedules and unforeseen circumstances from moral dilemmas and emotional heartaches Even just thinking about our own mortality the fact that we only live one life can lead us to tremendous suffering No wonder philosophies such as Buddhism Taoism Stoicism and even Epicureanism all of which counsel us to rise above these plights have had appeal over the centuries May highlights the tremendous value of these philosophies and the ways they can guide us toward better lives but he also exposes a major drawback to their tenets such invulnerability is too emotionally disengaged from the world leading us to place too great a distance between ourselves and our experience Rather than seeking absolute immunity he argues most of us just want to hurt less and learn how to embrace and accept what suffering we do endure in a meaningful way Offering a guide on how to positively engage suffering May ultimately lays out a new way of thinking about how we exist in the world The Best American Essays 2015 Ariel Levy, 2020-12-15 22 contributors explore a wide range of experiences in this illuminating invaluable anthology edited by the author of Female Chauvinist Pigs Publishers Weekly Writing an essay is like catching a wave posits guest editor Ariel Levy To catch a wave you need skill and nerve not just moving water The writers featured in this volume are certainly full of nerve and have crafted a wide range of pieces awash in a diversity of moods voices and stances Leaving an abusive marriage parting with a younger self losing your sanity to Fitbit and even saying goodbye to a beloved pair of pants are just some of the experience probed by essays that are unified in the daring of their creation As Levy notes Writing around an idea you think is worthwhile an idea you suspect is an insight requires real audacity The Best American Essays 2015 includes entries by Hilton Als Roger Angell Justin Cronin Meghan Daum Anthony Doerr Margo Jefferson David Sedaris Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit and others The Georgia Review, 2013 Finding God in the Darkness Bradley Gray, Chad Bird, 2023-07-18 Suffering engulfs our lives in an unavoidable darkness leaving answers and explanations obscured like a sorrowful fog The gospel of Christ however gives us something infinitely more valuable than answers or explanations Finding God in the Darkness Hopeful Reflections from the Pits of Depression Despair and Disappointment is not an attempt to decode or decipher every nook and cranny of sorrow and suffering It is a journey wherein faith hope and love are unexpectedly found along the way in the midst of darkness Much to our surprise that's where God shows up too Life Reimagined Barbara Bradley Hagerty, 2017-03-14 Barbara Bradley Hagerty is a wise and engaging guide through the possibilities of middle age Daniel H Pink author of To Sell Is Human and Drive A dynamic and inspiring exploration of the new science that is redrawing the future for people in their forties fifties and sixties for the better and for good There's no such thing as an inevitable midlife crisis Barbara Bradley Hagerty writes in this provocative hopeful book It's a myth an illusion New scientific research explodes the fable that midlife is a time when things start to go downhill for everybody In fact midlife can be a great new adventure when you can embrace fresh possibilities purposes and pleasures In Life Reimagined Hagerty explains that midlife is about renewal It's the time to renegotiate your purpose refocus your relationships and transform the way you think about the world and yourself Drawing from emerging information in neurology psychology biology genetics and sociology as well as her own story of midlife transformation Hagerty redraws the map for people in midlife and plots a new course forward in understanding our health our relationships even our futures Methods of Argument Deborah H. Holdstein, Danielle Aquiline, 2019 This reader is designed to support Composition II courses focused on methods and techniques of argument The selections will model an array of critical thinking as well as argumentative writing techniques by which one can argue a single point of view and also more complex mixed forms of argumentation The goal will always be to model how a student may respond in writing and discussion with an accountable well supported viewpoint In a current climate of fake news and alternative facts this reader provides a timely and compelling context in which to offer students opportunities to craft reasoned arguments with evidence Selections will be framed by an introduction featuring a narrative on analyzing and writing arguments the importance of accountability including challenging others less than compelling arguments and information on the reading and writing process Selections themselves will comprise both classic and contemporary sources and be diverse in origin genre and topic The Big Relief David Zahl, 2025-04-29 We could all use a little or a lot of relief from the pressures of life And there is no bigger relief than the grace of God Think of grace as one way love A gift with no strings attached Favor when you least expect or deserve it Knowing that you don't have to do anything to earn God's approval In The Big Relief popular author David Zahl spotlights grace as the most important urgent and radical contribution Christianity has to offer the world Zahl helps readers understand the beauty and depth of grace outlining how it provides relief from the guilt status anxiety and accelerating demand that characterize so much of modern life Drawing on the witness of Scripture and a panoply of contemporary examples he unpacks the theology of grace in fresh and exciting terms exploring its many fruits such as freedom play surrender humility rest surprise and joy in the process Zahl invites us to embrace Christianity as a refuge rather than as a project a beacon of hope instead of a vehicle of shame and a harbor of refreshment in a worn out world Ultimately he welcomes everyone to receive the gift of relief we so desperately need
