Benson, 1996 Missionary Training Program Binder, Language Missionary Training Center (Provo, Utah), Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1983 Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2016-09-08 Missionaries must know God be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field It also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity This book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together Missionary Handbook Supplement Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1986 Encountering Missionary Life and Work (Encountering Mission) Tom Steffen, Lois McKinney Douglas, 2008-06-01 This new volume in the award winning Encountering Mission series is for current and future missionaries It provides practical guidance regarding getting ready for the mission field and the realities of life on the field The authors are well qualified to write such a manual each having served as a missionary for more than twenty years and each having taught missions in seminary The authors begin by examining the contemporary context for missions including the recognition that the world's mission fields are in constant and often rapid change. They then discuss aspects of preparing oneself for the mission field beginning with home front preparations and moving to on the field preparations.
