Living the 1.5 Degree Lifestyle Lloyd Alter, 2021-09-14 Stop thinking about efficiency and start thinking about sufficiency Living the 1.5 Degree Lifestyle reveals the carbon cost of everything we do identifying where we can make big reductions while not sweating the small stuff The international scientific consensus is that we have less than a decade to drastically slash our collective carbon emissions to keep global heating to 1.5 degrees and avert catastrophe This means that many of us have to cut our individual carbon footprints by over 80% to 2.5 tonnes per person per year by 2030. But where to start? Drawing on Lloyd Alter's journey to track his daily carbon emissions and live the 1.5 degree lifestyle, coverage includes: What it looks like to live a rich and truly green life; From take out food to bikes and cars to your internet usage; finding the big wins; ignoring the trivial and spotting marketing ploys; The invisible embodied carbon baked into everything we own and why electric cars aren't the answer; How to start thinking about sufficiency rather than efficiency; The roles of individuals versus governments and corporations; Grounded in meticulous research and yet accessible to all. Living the 1.5 Degree Lifestyle is a journey toward a life of quality over quantity and sufficiency over efficiency as we race to save our only home from catastrophic heating. Independent Women Claire Perkins, Michele Schreiber, 2021-06-07

Independent Women From Film to Television explores the significance for feminism of the increasing representation of women on and behind the screen in television contexts around the world. Independent has functioned throughout film and television history as an important euphemism for feminist. This volume investigates how this connection plays out in a contemporary environment that popular feminist discourse is constructing as a golden age of television for women. The original essays in the volume offer insights into how post-network television is being valued as a new site of independent production for women. They also examine how these connotations of creative control influence perceptions of both female creators and their content as feminist. Together they provide a compelling perspective on the feminist consequences of how independence and indie have intensified as cultural sensibilities that coincide and engage with the digital transformation of television during the first decades of the 21st century. The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of Feminist Media Studies. Bigger Better Braver Nancy Pickard, 2020-07-14 In Bigger Better Braver master integrative life coach Nancy Pickard challenges us with these life-altering questions: Is there something you'd love to do but haven't found the courage? Do you want to give yourself over to the fullest possible experience of living? Do you want to take a leap toward a bigger, better, braver life? Bigger Better Braver is a proven step-by-step guide for uncovering and putting into action the vision we each have in our hearts to live the life we are meant to lead. Provided with clarity and enhanced with inspirational client and personal stories, it shows readers how to get unstuck from old ways of behaving and take bold steps toward something new and larger in their lives. The book is a journey in itself as Nancy lays out time-tested tools to identify face and overcome shadow beliefs from childhood that hold us back, get free of the limits of our comfort zone, come to terms with and cultivate fear as a driving force for change, and discover the courage we already have to take bold steps into the future. She teaches how to be more present, use our intuition, and get out from under the daily restrictions of autopilot. She reveals strategies to stay the course, maintain low attachment to outcome, receive feedback, stay disciplined and responsible to ourselves, and learn what it means to practice acceptance and surrender. Ms. Pickard's testimony to her proven methods. She reinvented herself as a master life coach in her second half and at the age of 61 climbed Mount Kilimanjaro, experiences and achievements that recalibrated her way of being and became her vision for a bigger life Not everyone must climb a mountain to live larger As the book well shows each of our versions of a bigger life can be anything that brings elation accomplishment fulfillment and connection with the spirit of who we are Bigger Better Braver provides the pathway to uncover our personal vision of what living bigger means and opens the door for a major life change We: A Manifesto for Women Everywhere Gillian
