Participation in Residential Childcare Claudia Equit, 2024-07-15 Article 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child establishes the right to participation children and adolescents are entitled to participate and to have their views taken into account in all issues affecting them in accordance to their age and maturity The volume explores this right to participation in residential care The impact of participation and complaint procedures in residential care facilities are evaluated by means of crucial results from an empirical study How do these participation and complaints procedures work The authors discuss crucial facilitators and barriers with regard to the implementation of children's rights to participate

Human Beings--between the Individual and the Social Peter Herrmann, 2006 Looking for an answer of social science being able to maintain political independence without losing genuine political orientation and responsibility and at the same time maintaining a sophisticated balance of holistic orientation on the one side and discrimination on the other side is of course on the one hand bound to the objective conditions of society on the other hand and even more so scientists have to accept their responsibility of re gaining independence in terms of looking for valid answers to assess development and to change them where necessary rather than fulfilling expectations of the development by simply maintaining the status quo In this regard the present contributions reach a high level of expertise in their independence of judgements This is of particular interest as they cover a huge variety of topics and areas not least coming from different disciplinary backgrounds and as well looking at different aggregate levels Modern Social Work Theory, Fourth Edition Malcolm Payne, 2014-06 This masterly text is a classic in its field and will be a reliable companion throughout the course of your studies and your career as a social work practitioner In this substantially reworked and updated fourth edition of his best selling text Malcolm Payne presents clear and concise evaluations of the pros and cons of major theories that inform social work practice and comparisons between them Modern Social Work Theory is now more accessible and comprehensive than ever offering the most complete coverage of social work theory from classic perspectives to the very latest ideas including a new chapter dedicated to strengths narrative and solutions approaches a host of brand new case examples showing how theories can be applied to everyday practice new analysis of the ethical dimensions of different social work theories and what common values they share Pause and Reflect questions to encourage you to draw on your own experience and develop your thinking and updated Example text sections which summarize the most current thinking and help bridge the gap between introductions to each theory and more specialist writing Observation and Its Application to Social Work Pat Le Riche, Karen Tanner, 1998 Karen Tanner and Pat Le Riche have brought together a range of contributions from practitioners and social work academics in order to discuss the application of ideas about observation to social work education and practice The authors focus on how observation can be used to counteract oppressive and dehumanising practices
