between art and craft between the creative idea and its realization in Renaissance and Baroque Italy The essays all such artists as Michelangelo Titian Volterrano Giovanni di Paolo and Annibale Carracci along with aspects of the artists creative processes work habits and aesthetic convictions the essayists explore the ways in which art was conceived and produced at a time when collaboration with pupils assistants or independent masters was an accepted part of the artistic process The consensus of the contributors amounts to a revision or at least a qualification of Bernard Berenson s accord greater influence to the collaborative appropriative conventions and practices of the craft workshop which persisted into and beyond the Renaissance from its origins in the Middle Ages Consequently we must acknowledge the sometimes
