Composing Ourselves Writing From The Composition Program At Missouri State University:

Composing Ourselves Lori Feyh, Ken Gillam, 2009 Writing Spaces Dana Driscoll, Matthew Vetter, 2020-03-07

Volumes in Writing Spaces Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide range of topics about writing. In each chapter, authors present their unique views, insights, and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly. Drawing on their own experiences, these teachers as writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about the craft of writing. Consequently, each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in first-year writing or writing-intensive courses across the disciplines at any level. Volume 3 continues the tradition of previous volumes with topics such as voice and style in writing, rhetorical appeals, discourse communities, multimodal composing, visual rhetoric, credibility, exigency, working with personal experience in academic writing, globalized writing, and rhetoric, constructing scholarly ethos, imitation, and style, and rhetorical punctuation. The Seventeenth-Century

Literature Handbook Robert C. Evans, Eric J. Sterling, 2010-02-10. One-stop resource offering complete textbook for courses in seventeenth-century literature, progressing from introductory topics through to overviews of current research.
