Indigenous African Communication and Media Systems in a Digitized Age Unwana Samuel Akpan, Eddah Mbula Mutua, 2024-12-16 Through a meticulous exploration of oral traditions and community based media practices Unwana Samuel Akpan Eddah Mutua and the contributors of Indigenous African Communication and Media Systems in a Digitized Age explore the intricate interplay between traditional African communication methods and the modern digital terrain to unveil how these age old systems are continuously evolving in response to globalization and digital advancements From the rhythmic beats of the talking drum to the vibrant tapestry of oral histories this book traces how Indigenous African societies have historically disseminated knowledge and preserved cultural identities It examines the transformative impact of digital technologies on these practices to explore the rise of social media mobile connectivity and online storytelling platforms within African contexts Akpan and Mutua challenge conventional narratives of media development by highlighting the resilience and relevance of African cultural expressions in an increasingly interconnected world This book is essential reading for Afrocentric scholars and those interested in media studies cultural anthropology and the dynamic intersections of tradition and technology

African Traditional Medicine DAVID OYEBOLA MD, 2020-02-10 This book is written to provide information on various aspects of Yoruba and indeed African traditional medicine The writer's research on Yoruba traditional medicine provides the bulk of the materials in the book The book consists of eleven chapters Chapters 1 and 2 provide the background to the book Chapters 3 to 10 encapsulate the different aspects of Yoruba traditional medicine such as classification of healers methods of training of healers methods of diagnosis and investigation of diseases treatment of diseases Yoruba pharmacopoeia midwifery bone setting and other forms of traditional surgery Chapter 11 describes the meeting point of hospitals and healers this meeting point in the opinion of the author should be how best to serve the interests of the patients The best form of relationship that should exist between hospitals and healers is also discussed The two systems of medicine exist side by side in Nigeria and most African countries yet remain functionally unrelated in any intentional sense It is argued that no medical system is perfect and no single care system has all the answers to all human health and related problems Each of the two systems has its strong and weak points The often talked about integration of the two systems has potential pitfalls and may be undesirable The book concludes that the best form of relationship may well be one of genuine cooperation and mutual respect between the two systems since this will lead in the ultimate to advancement of medical knowledge and overall improvement of patient care All levels of government in Nigeria have decisive roles to play in achieving this mutually beneficial cooperation of the two systems

Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Nhemachena, Artwell, Hlabangane, Nokuthula, Matowanyika, Joseph Z. Z., 2020-03-02 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies

Violence, Politics and Conflict Management in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2016-09-01 This volume critically interrogates from different angles and dimensions the resilience of conflict and violence into 21st century Africa The demise of European colonial administration in Africa in the 1960s wielded fervent hope for enduring peace for the people of Africa Regrettably conflict alongside violence in all its dimensions physical religious political psychological and structural remain unabated and occupy central stage in contemporary Africa The resilience of conflict and violence on the continental scene invokes unsettling memories of the past while negatively influencing the present and future of crafting inclusive citizenship and statehood he book provides fresh insightful ethnographic and intellectual material for rethinking violence and conflict and for fostering long lasting peace and political justice on the continent and beyond With its penetrating focus on conflict and associated trajectories of violence in Africa the book is an inestimable asset for conflict management practitioners political scientists historians civil society activists and leaders in economics and politics as well as all those interested in the affairs of Africa
