Complete narratives of francophone Caribbean tales Rouben Charles Cholakian,1996 This anthology of Francophone Caribbean tales offers readings and replaces extracts with complete narratives The selections provide a variety of stories from all the French speaking regions of the Caribbean including Guadeloupe Guiana Haiti and Martinique by both male and female authors A short biographical sketch precedes each story and there are also suggestions for classroom discussion Other features include a general introduction placing the tales in their historical and cultural context and explanations of unusual vocabulary

Caribbean Children's Literature, Volume 1 Betsy Nies,Melissa García Vega,2023-05-18 Contributions by Mar a V Acevedo Aquino Consuella Bennett Florencia V Cornet Stacy Ann Creech Zeila Frade Melissa Garc a Vega Ann Gonz lez Louise Hardwick Barbara Lalla Megan Jeanette Myers Betsy Nies Karen Sanderson Cole Karen Sands O Connor Geraldine Elizabeth Skeete and Aisha T Spencer The world of Caribbean children s literature finds its roots in folktales and storytelling As countries distanced themselves from former colonial powers post 1950s the field has taken a new turn that emerges not just from writers within the region but also from those of its diaspora Rich in language diversity and history contemporary Caribbean children s literature offers a window into the ongoing representations of not only local realities but also the fantasies that structure the genre itself Young adult literature entered the region in the 1970s offering much needed representations of teenage voices and concerns With the growth of local competitions and publishing awards the genre has gained momentum providing a new field of scholarly analyses Similarly the field of picture books has also deepened Caribbean Children s Literature Volume 1 History Pedagogy and Publishing includes general coverage of children s literary history in the regions where the four major colonial powers have left their imprint addresses intersections between pedagogy and children s literature in the Anglophone Caribbean explores the challenges of producing and publishing picture books and engages with local authors familiar with the terrain Local writers come together to discuss writerly concerns and publishing challenges In new interviews conducted for this volume international authors Edwidge Danticat Junot D az and Olive Senior discuss their transition from writing for adults to creating picture books for children

Translating Frantz Fanon Across Continents and Languages Kathryn Batchelor,Sue-Ann Harding,2017-04-21 This book provides an innovative look at the reception of Frantz Fanon s texts investigating how when where and why these especially his seminal Les Damn s de la Terre 1961 were first translated and read Building on renewed interest in the author s works in both postcolonial studies and revolutionary movements in recent years as well as travelling theory micro history and histoire crois e interests in Translation Studies the volume tells the stories of translations of Fanon s texts into twelve different languages Arabic Danish English German Italian Norwegian Persian Polish Russian Serbo Croatian Swahili and Swedish bringing both a historical and multilingual perspective to the ways in which Fanon is cited today With contributions from an international interdisciplinary group of scholars the stories told combine themes of movement and place personal networks and agency politics and activism archival research and textual analysis creating a book that is a fresh and comprehensive volume on the translated works of Frantz Fanon and essential reading for scholars in translation studies postcolonial studies cultural studies critical race studies and African and African diaspora literature

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996 Latin American History at the Movies Donald F. Stevens,2022-08-12 Movies are meant to be entertaining but they can also be educational People are naturally curious to know how much of what they see on their screens might be historically true In Latin American History at the Movies experts on Latin America focus on five centuries of history as portrayed in feature films An introduction on the visual presentation of the past in movies sets the stage for essays that explore sixteen of the best feature films on Latin America made from the 1980s to the present

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

Comparing Postcolonial Diasporas M. Keown,D. Murphy,J. Procter,2009-01-15 Bringing together a group of intellectuals from a number of disciplines this collection breaks new ground within the field of postcolonial diaspora studies moving beyond the Anglophone bias of much existing scholarship by investigating comparative links between a range of Anglophone Francophone Hispanic and Neerlandophone cultural contexts

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2010 Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack,1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated France texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area     “Obeah” and Other Martinican Stories Marie-Magdeleine Carbet,2017-04-01 This volume comprises French versions and English translations of seven short stories written by Marie Magdeleine Carbet Martinique s most prolific woman writer Four of these stories are previously unpublished culled from documents obtained from Carbet s niece While analyses of the literature of the French Caribbean have tended to portray these people typically as suffering from pathologies of colonial oppression the situations and reflections presented in these stories offer different perspectives on the lives and concerns of ordinary Martinicans and thus provide insight into some of the missing links of the sociocultural scene This unique multifaceted text fills an important pedagogical and scholarly need and allows the reader to access the daily lives of French Caribbeans in a significantly authentic way
