Canonizing Hypertext Explorations And Constructions Continuum Literary Studies:

Canonizing Hypertext Astrid Ensslin, 2007-05-09 This innovative monograph focuses on a contemporary form of computer based literature called literary hypertext a digital interactive communicative form of new media writing Canonizing Hypertext combines theoretical and hermeneutic investigations with empirical research into the motivational and pedagogic possibilities of this form of literature It focuses on key questions for literary scholars and teachers How can literature be taught in such a way as to make it relevant for an increasingly hypermedia oriented readership How can the rapidly evolving new media be integrated into curricula that still seek to transmit traditional literary competence How can the notion of literary competence be broadened to take into account these current trends This study which argues for hypertext s integration in the literary canon offers a critical overview of developments in hypertext theory an exemplary hypertext canon and an evaluation of possible classroom applications

Hyperandrogenism and the Marginalization of Pathologized Bodies Megan Perram, 2025-09-30 In the current sociopolitical landscape hyperandrogenism has become a lightning rod for collective anxieties about transgender identities and preserving women s sports as well as misunderstandings about the inherent fairness of sport and the biological mechanisms that quantify athletic advantage Perched behind this discourse people living with hyperandrogenism face ongoing destabilization of healthcare access and find their experiences are often silenced and marginalized This book offers a novel therapeutic method for individuals with hyperandrogenism to share their experiences using literary hypertext a form of digital storytelling that invites readers to participate by selecting hyperlinks Focusing on a case study of women and nonbinary individuals with hyperandrogenism ten hypertext authors narratives are explored Their experiences highlight the therapeutic value of writing a hypertext illness narrative by mapping reflective experiences through hyperlinks and sharing their narrative with the broader community Providing interdisciplinary insights into the lived experience of hyperandrogenism as well as practical guidance on the clinical use of literary text this book will appeal to researchers and clinicians interested in hyperandrogenism gender studies health humanities narrative therapy electronic media game design and feminist media studies

New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression Marcel Cornis-Pope, 2014-11-15 Begun in 2010 as part of the Histories of Literatures in European Languages series sponsored by the International Comparative Literature Association the current project on New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression recognizes the global shift toward the visual and the virtual in all areas of textuality the printed verbal text is increasingly joined with the visual often electronic text This shift has opened up new domains of human achievement in art and culture The international roster of 24 contributors to this volume pursue a broad range of issues under four sets of questions that allow a larger conversation to emerge both inside the volume s sections and between them The four sections cover 1 Multimedia Productions in Theoretical and Historical Perspective 2 Regional and Intercultural Projects 3 Forms and Genres and 4 Readers and Rewriters in Multimedia Environments The essays included in this volume are examples of the kinds of projects and inquiries that have become possible at the interface between literature and other media new and old They emphasize the extent to which hypertextual multimedia and virtual reality technologies have enhanced the sociality of reading and writing enabling more people to interact than ever before At the same time however they warn that as long as these technologies are used to reinforce old habits of reading writing they will deliver modest results One of the major tasks pursued by the contributors to this volume is to integrate literature in the global informational environment where it can function as an imaginative partner teaching its interpretive competencies to other components of the cultural landscape

New Narratives Ruth Page, Bronwen Thomas, 2011-12-01 Just as the explosive growth of digital media has led to ever expanding narrative possibilities and practices so these new electronic modes of storytelling have in their own turn demanded a rapid and radical rethinking of narrative theory This timely volume takes up the challenge deeply and broadly considering the relationship between digital technology and narrative theory in the face of the changing landscape of computer mediated communication New Narratives reflects the diversity of its subject by bringing together some of the foremost practitioners and theorists of digital narratives It extends the range of digital subgenres examined by narrative theorists to include forms that have become increasingly prominent new examples of experimental hypertext and contemporary video games The collection also explicitly draws connections between the development of narrative theory technological innovation and the use of narratives in particular social and cultural contexts Finally New Narratives focuses on how the tools provided by new technologies may be harnessed to provide new ways of both producing and theorizing narrative Truly interdisciplinary the book offers broad coverage of contemporary narrative theory including frameworks that draw from classical and postclassical narratology linguistics and media studies Media Ecologies of Literature Susanne Bayerlipp,Ralf Haekel,Johannes Schlegel,2022-11-03 This book explores the media ecologies of literature the ways in which a literary text is interwoven in its material technical performative praxeological affective and discursive network and which determine how it is experienced and interpreted Through novel approaches to the complex contingent and interdependent environments of literature this volume demonstrates how questions about the mediality of literature particularly in the wake of digitization shed a new light on our understanding of textuality reading platforms and reception processes By drawing on recent developments in advanced media theory Media Ecologies of Literature emphasizes the productivity of innovative re conceptualizations of literature as a medium in its own right In an intentionally wide historical scope the essays engage with literary texts from the Romantic to the contemporary period from Charlotte Smith and Oscar Wilde to A L Kennedy and Mark Z Danielewski from the traditionally printed novel to audiobooks and reading apps

The Digital Future of English Simone Murray,2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book s imminent demise presented a simplistic either or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline s founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology s impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future Global

Perspectives on Digital Literature Torsa Ghosal, 2023-06-22 Global Perspectives on Digital Literature A Critical Introduction for the Twenty First Century explores how digital literary forms shape and are shaped by aesthetic and political exchanges happening across languages and nations The book understands global as a mode of comparative thinking and argues for considering various forms of digital literature the popular the avant garde and the participatory as realizing and producing global thought in the twenty first century Attending to issues of both political and aesthetic representation the book includes a diverse group of contributors and a wide ranging corpus of texts composed in a variety of languages and regions including East and South Asia parts of Europe Latin America North America Australia and Western Africa The book's contributors adopt an array of interpretive approaches to make visible new connections and possibilities engendered by cross cultural encounters Among other topics they reflect on the shifting conditions for production and distribution of literature participatory cultures and technological affordances of Web 2.0 the ever changing dynamics of global and local forces and fundamental questions such as What do we mean when we talk about literature today and What is the future of literature

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature Joseph Tabbi, 2017-11-30 Winner of the 2017 N Katherine Hayles Award for Criticism of Electronic Literature A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2018 The digital age has had a profound impact on literary culture with new technologies opening up opportunities for new forms of literary art from hyperfiction to multi media poetry and narrative driven games Bringing together leading scholars and artists from across the world The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature is the first authoritative reference handbook to the field Crossing disciplinary boundaries this book explores the foundational theories of the field contemporary artistic practices debates and controversies surrounding such key concepts as canonicity world systems narrative and the digital humanities and historical developments and new media contexts of contemporary electronic literature Including guides to major publications in the field The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature is an essential resource for scholars of contemporary culture in the digital era

Digimodernism Alan Kirby, 2009-05-01 Almost without anybody noticing a new cultural paradigm has come center stage displacing an exhausted and increasingly marginalised postmodernism Dr Alan Kirby calls this cultural paradigm digimodernism a name comprising both its central technical mode and its privileging of the fingers and thumbs in its use The increasing irrelevancy of postmodernism requires a new theory to underpin our current digital culture
