Deeds Of The Saxons Medieval Texts In Translation:

Deeds of the Saxons Widukind of Corvey, 2014-12 This book does not include the original Latin text Empress Adelheid and Countess Matilda Penelope Nash, 2017-02-15 This book compares two successful elite women Empress Adelheid 931 999 and Countess Matilda 1046 1115 for their relative ability to retain their wealth and power in the midst of the profound social changes of the eleventh century The careers of the Ottonian queen and empress Adelheid and Countess Matilda of Tuscany reveal a growth of opportunities for women to access wealth and power These two women are analyzed under three categories their relationships with family and friends how they managed their property particularly land and how they ruled This analysis encourages a better understanding of gender relations in both the past and the present The Complete Works of Liudprand of Cremona (Medieval Texts in Translation) Liudprand (Bishop of Cremona), 2007-12 This modern English translation of all the surviving literary compositions ascribed to Liudprand the bishop of Cremona from 962 to 972 offers unrivaled insight into society and culture in western Europe during the iron century A Cultural History of

Genocide in the Middle Ages Melodie H. Eichbauer, 2023-05-04 The period covered by this volume roughly 800 1400 considers genocidal massacres and actions within the context of the pre modern state a time when the term genocide did not yet exist In considering rhetoric discrimination and political and legal marginalization that impacted the lives of particular peoples the volume takes as its premise that genocidal practices and massacres can occur when social dynamism and political change challenges the identity of a community The case studies analysed in the individual chapters implicitly or explicitly draw upon the frameworks of comparative genocide scholars to explore genocidal massacres in the Middle Ages as localized phenomenon even if these isolated outbursts do not graph onto the modern definition of genocide perfectly Each contribution considers genocide as caused by settling national religious and ethnic differences genocide as designed to enforce or fulfil an ideology and genocide as designed to colonize Collectively the essays move beyond the number of people killed to consider the steps taken against a people to erase them from the social and cultural fabric of society It is hoped that this volume encourages us to think both about the legal structures of genocide but also about how the term can be more inclusive and expansive Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom, 500-1500, 2019-12-02 Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom 500 1500 shows the historical value of texts celebrating saints both the most abundant medieval source material and among the most difficult to use Hagiographical sources present many challenges they are usually anonymous often hard to date full of topoi and unstable Moreover they are generally not what we would consider factually accurate The volume s twenty one contributions draw on a range of disciplines and employ a variety of innovative methods to address these challenges and reach new discoveries about the medieval world that extend well beyond the study of sanctity They show the rich potential of hagiography to enhance our knowledge of that world and some of the ways to unlock it Contributors are Ellen Arnold Helen Birkett Edina Bozoky Emma Campbell Adrian Cornell du Houx David Defries

Tyler,2019-11-28 History writing in the Middle Ages did not belong to any particular genre language or class of texts Its remit was wide embracing the events of antiquity the deeds of saints rulers and abbots archival practices and contemporary reportage This volume addresses the challenges presented by medieval historiography by using the diverse methodologies of medieval studies legal and literary history art history religious studies codicology the history of the emotions gender studies and critical race theory Spanning one thousand years of historiography in England Wales Ireland and Scotland the essays map historical thinking across literary genres and expose the rich veins of national mythmaking tapped into by medieval writers Additionally they attend to the ways in which medieval histories crossed linguistic and geographical borders Together they trace multiple temporalities and productive anachronisms that fuelled some of the most innovative medieval writing

Queenship and Sanctity Sean Gilsdorf,2004-07 Queenship and Sanctity brings together for the first time in English the anonymous Lives of Mathilda and Odilo of Cluny s Epitaph of Adelheid Richly annotated with an extensive introduction placing the texts and their subjects in historical and hagiographical context it provides teachers and students with a crucial set of sources for the history of Europe particularly Germany in the tenth and eleventh centuries for the development of sacred biography and medieval notions of sanctity and for the life of aristocratic and royal women in the early Middle Ages

Cragle,2023-10-06 Utilizing a crusading ethos from 772 to 804 AD Charlemagne King of the Franks waged war against the continental Saxons to integrate them within the growing Frankish Empire and facilitate their conversion to Christianity While substantial research has been produced concerning various components of Carolingian history this work offers a unique examination of Charlemagne s Saxon Wars as a case study for understanding methods of conversion used in the Christianization of Europe as well as their significance for subsequent conversion strategies employed around the globe Converting the Saxons builds on prior scholarly research is grounded in primary sources and is contextualized with a robust historical introduction Throughout the text particular emphasis is given to Christian encounters with paganism and the way paganism was interpreted confronted and transformed Within those encounters we observe myriad forces of coercion and incentivization used in societal religious conversion demonstrating the need for a serious reconsideration of the standard narratives surrounding Christian missions This book provides a scholarly and accessible resource for students and researchers interested in transhistorical methods of conversion the history of Christianity Early Medieval paganism Colonial religious encounters and the nature of religious conversion
