Daisy Miller Henry James, 2016-08-09 A young American woman searches for love and independence in Europe in this iconic tale Old World and New World values collide in this classic coming of age romance A delicious comedy of manners from master storyteller Henry James Daisy Miller has long reserved its place in the annals of America's most oft read novellas and its examination of culture and class differences continues to resonate today on both sides of the Atlantic Annie Daisy Miller is a new money American girl from Schenectady New York on a European tour with her family While at an upper crust lakefront retreat in Switzerland Daisy's younger brother Randolph introduces her to the older more refined Frederick Winterbourne and the Swiss educated man is stunned by Daisy's unique combination of naiveté and flirtatiousness As rumors fly regarding Daisy's active nightlife and her suspect relationship with a young Italian man Winterbourne chases her to Rome his meddlesome aunt questioning the girl's breeding and propriety all the while Rich in complex characterizations and superb in its economies of form Daisy Miller is a must read for serious connoisseurs of American literature who will appreciate how James renders such an expansive world within a relatively tight space Written by a master of his craft this novella is easily one of James's most beloved works timeless in its approach to the complexities of the human heart This ebook has been professionally proofread to ensure accuracy and readability on all devices Daisy Miller: The Wild and

Wanton Edition Gabrielle Vigot, Henry James, 2013-07-29 Daisy Miller will forever be a classic story of courtship But the original novella is not a romance per se because the unrequited love of both of the two main characters Daisy Miller and Frederick Winterbourne longs for a happy and salaciously steamy conclusion That's why modern author Gabrielle Vigot added a few key saucy scenes to enhance the relationship and sexual tension that is insinuated in Henry James's civilized original story Daisy is a flirt and Winterbourne thinks he has her figured out But little does he know that throughout his courtship Daisy's attitude toward him is hardly that of the easy swooning American girl he expected Daisy makes Winterbourne's heart ache for her with her vampish teasing confounds him deliciously and infuriates him to the bitter end Dear reader you know you'll want to find out whether Daisy just simply loves to flirt with all of the impeccably dressed gentlemen of Rome or whether she is partial to well mannered but increasingly annoyed Winterbourne Will Winterbourne's heart give up on her in the end or will his feelings mature enough for him to claim her for himself once and for all Daisy Miller was Henry James's most popular and controversial piece and the original book printer sold 20 000 copies in a matter of weeks Editor Geoffrey Moore preferred the fine writing in the original versions over the later versions and thus the purity of the first American version serves as the base for this Wild and Wanton edition Sensuality Level Sensual Daisy Miller.
