Christopher Lloyds Garden Flowers Perennials Bulbs Grasses Ferns:

Christopher Lloyd's Garden Flowers Christopher Lloyd, 2000 Christopher Lloyd knows perennials as well as anyone else alive Now available in paperback this book represents the fruit of Lloyd's lifetime study of perennials Genus by genus he sets down everything he has learned thought seen tried liked or regretted about them individually or in combination He is formidably knowledgeable iconoclastic opinionated and always entertaining Here meticulously recorded are his expert opinions about numerous varieties of flowering garden plants from Acanthus to Zigadenus accompanied by spectacular photographs from Jonathan Buckley and others Any gardener will find themselves opening this book time and again with pleasure and the frequent thought I MUST grow this one too Christopher Lloyd Stephen Anderton, 2010-03-04

Christopher Lloyd Christo was one of the greatest English gardeners of the twentieth century perhaps the finest plantsman of them all His creation is the garden at Great Dixter in East Sussex and it is a tribute to his vision and achievement that after his death in 2006 the Heritage Lottery Fund made a grant of 4 million to help preserve it for the nation This enjoyable and revealing book the first biography of Christo is also the story of Dixter from 1910 to 2006 a unique unbroken history of one English house and one English garden spanning a century It was Christo's father Nathaniel who bought the medieval manor at Dixter and called in the fashionable Edwardian architect Lutyens to rebuild the house and lay out the garden And it was his mother Daisy who made the first wild garden in the meadows there Christo was born at Dixter in 1921 Apart from boarding school war service and a period at horticultural college he spent his whole life there constantly re-planting and enriching the garden while turning out landmark books and exhaustive journalism Opinionated argumentative and gloriously eccentric he changed the face of English gardening through his passions for meadow gardening dazzling colours and thorough husbandry As the baby of a family of six five boys and a girl Christo was stifled by his adoring mother Music loving and sports hating he knew the Latin names of plants before he was eight This fascinating book reveals what made Christo tick by examining his relationships with his generous but scheming mother his like minded friends such as gardeners Anna Pavord and Beth Chatto and his colleagues including his head gardener Fergus Garrett a plantsman in Christo's own mould

The View from Great Dixter, 2010-01-01 In this intimate collection of written and photographic contributions Christopher Lloyd's wide circle of family and friends describe what Great Dixter means to them Gardening in the Pacific Northwest Paul Bonine, Amy Campion, 2025-04-08 A must have growing guide for gardeners in the Pacific Northwest A gardener's plant choices and garden style are inextricably linked to the place they call home In order to grow a flourishing garden every gardener must know the specifics of their region's climate soil and geography Gardening in the Pacific Northwest by regional gardening experts Paul Bonine and Amy Campion is comprehensive enthusiastic and accessible to gardeners of all levels It features information on site and plant selection soil preparation and maintenance and basic design principles Plant profiles highlight the region's best perennials shrubs trees and vines Color photographs throughout show wonderful examples of Northwest garden style The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001
