Church Ministry And Sacraments In The New Testament The Didsbury Lectures:

Church, Ministry, and Sacraments in the New Testament C. K. Barrett, 2005-01-18 In a nontechnical manner noted New Testament scholar C K Barrett here sets forth his mature understanding of the passages in the New Testament which refer to the church its ministry and its sacraments How far are these concepts central or secondary in the New Testament How do the beliefs and practices of apostolic days relate to later developments Bringing the fruits of his widely respected scholarship to bear on these questions Barrett shows that these are not mere theoretical issues but are of crucial importance for inter church cooperation and reunion Church, Ministry, and Sacraments in the New Testament Charles Kingsley Barrett, 1985

In a nontechnical manner noted New Testament scholar C K Barrett here sets forth his mature understanding of the passages in the New Testament which refer to the church its ministry and its sacraments How far are these concepts central or secondary in the New Testament How do the beliefs and practices of apostolic days relate to later developments Bringing the fruits of his widely respected scholarship to bear on these questions Barrett shows that these are not mere theoretical issues but are of crucial importance for inter church cooperation and reunion Back Cover Church, Ministry, and Sacraments in the New Testament , 1983 Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross, 2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4 5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting Serve the Community of the Church Andrew D. Clarke, 2000 Serve the Community of the Church the second volume in the First Century Christians in the Graeco Roman World series explores the nature of organization and leadership roles in the first century Christian community especially as they were variously taught by Paul and practiced in the earliest congregations Drawing from ancient source material as well as from the New Testament Andrew Clarke describes the theories and practices of organization and leadership in key areas of first century Graeco Roman society the city the colony voluntary associations Jewish synagogues the family and discusses the extent to which these models influenced the first Christians in defining their own communities Clarke then turns to the Christian community itself discussing how Paul through correspondence with a number of congregations laid out important parameters for leadership that he considered appropriate to the new Christian context Some of these parameters Clarke shows were defined in express contrast to the patterns of leadership widely practiced in Graeco Roman society and occasionally also in the early Christian communities Providing a fascinating look at the social and historical background of the New Testament this volume is also important for its discussion of a subject that has implications for the organization of church life in our own time

Christ, the Spirit and the Community of God Arie W. Zwiep, 2010 Collection of essays published previously between 1995 and 2010

The Spirit Driven Church Terje Hegertun, 2017-06-28 Must the church be either charismatic or sacramental In this book Terje Hegertun argues that she has the privilege of being both The Day of Pentecost formed her identity and shaped her conviction of being lifted on the arms of grace and pushed forward by the power from on high In the midst of her vulnerability and failure the worldwide faith community is a composition of the Spirit One of the greatest gifts the church may offer the world is simply to be church a charismatic sacramental fellowship a dwelling place of God's Spirit A church nurtured by graceful charismatic and sacramental gifts fosters a mature congregational spirituality distinguished by hospitable relations Thus the Spirit of God plays the main role of being the comprehensive principle of Christian unity across denominational lines

Rethinking Genesis 1-11 Gordon Wenham, 2015-03-13 Genesis 1-11 contains some of the best known stories in the world To modern Westerners they may look like no more than entertaining tales that children can enjoy but modern adults cannot take seriously However when read in the context of the ancient Orient Genesis 1-11 looks very different It turns out to be a truly revolutionary document In retelling the history of the ancient world it puts a new spin on it by introducing an all powerful all knowing unique God whose greatest concern is human welfare The God who appears in Genesis 1-11 is the God presupposed by all the Old Testament writers indeed by the New Testament as well The gripping tales of Genesis thus provide the theological spectacles for a sympathetic reading of the Bible They are the gateway to a valid understanding of its message and can even help modern believers construct a worldview that integrates both the discoveries of modern science and the insights of Christian theology

Luke's Portrait of Gentiles Prior to Their Coming to Faith Christoph W. Stenschke, 1999 Christoph W Stenschke examines Luke's portrait of the Gentiles state prior to their coming to Christian faith Following the history of research he commences with Luke's direct references to the Gentiles prior to faith and then draws conclusions concerning their state from the Gentile encounter with Jesus and Christian salvation This includes Luke's notes on the condition of Gentiles and on their appropriation of salvation Finally conclusions from Luke's portrayal of Gentile Christians are drawn With his approach Christoph W Stenschke challenges some previous contributions to Lukan anthropology He argues that the main study in the field J W Taeger Der Mensch und sein Heil does not sufficiently consider all the evidence By concentrating on the Gentiles in Luke Act including Samaritans and God fearers the author's thesis covers all the relevant material Contrary to Taeger who suggests that Gentiles do not need salvation as much as correction he discovers that Luke portrays Gentiles prior to faith in a condition requiring God's saving intervention. Thorough correction has to accompany and follow this salvation. Though allowing for distinct Lukan emphases, this portrait is not essentially at odds with that of other NT authors. These results further show that the Areopagus speech needs to and can be satisfactorily interpreted in its context and in conjunction with similar statements. The author further argues that Luke's narrative sections and the characterization they present should no longer be neglected in favour of the speeches. Luke's portrayal of Gentiles prior to faith also bears on his understanding of sin and provides additional justification for the Gentile mission. Christoph W. Stenschke challenges proposals of Luke's alleged anti-Judaism and provides some hitherto little noticed correctives.

The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell, 2021-01-12
The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith: the psychological mechanics of these effects, their resonances with Christian Scripture, and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post-traumatic resilience. Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery.
