Courage Captain James Oliver Curwood:

The Courage of Captain Plum James Oliver Curwood,2006-07 On an afternoon in the early summer of 1856 Captain Nathaniel Plum master and owner of the sloop Typhoon was engaged in nothing more important than the smoking of an enormous pipe Clouds of strongly odored smoke tinted with the lights of the setting sun had risen above his head in unrelenting volumes for the last half hour There was infinite contentment in his face notwithstanding the fact that he had been meditating on a subject that was not altogether pleasant But Captain Plum was in a way a philosopher though one would not have guessed this fact from his appearance He was in the first place a young man not more than eight or nine and twenty and his strong rather thin face tanned by exposure to the sea was just now lighted up by eyes that shone with an unbounded good humor which any instant might take the form of laughter
