Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies Engin Isin, Peter Nyers, 2014-06-27 Citizenship studies is at a crucial moment of globalizing as a field What used to be mainly a European North American and Australian field has now expanded to major contributions featuring scholarship from Latin America Asia Africa and the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies takes into account this globalizing moment At the same time it considers how the global perspective exposes the strains and discords in the concept of citizenship as it is understood today With over fifty contributions from international interdisciplinary experts the Handbook features state of the art analyses of the practices and enactments of citizenship across broad continental regions Africas Americas Asias and Europes as well as deterritorialized forms of citizenship Diasporicity and Indigeneity Through these analyses the Handbook provides a deeper understanding of citizenship in both empirical and theoretical terms This volume sets a new agenda for scholarly investigations of citizenship Its wide ranging contributions and clear accessible style make it essential reading for students and scholars working on citizenship issues across the humanities and social sciences

Arrival City Doug Saunders, 2011-03-22 Look around the largest migration in human history is under way For the first time ever more people are living in cities than in rural areas Between 2007 and 2050 the world s cities will have absorbed 3 1 billion people Urbanization is the mass movement that will change our world during the twenty first century and the arrival city is where it is taking place The arrival city exists on the outskirts of the metropolis in the slums or in the suburbs the American version is New York s Lower East Side of a century ago or today s Herndon County Virginia These are the places where newcomers try to establish new lives and to integrate themselves socially and economically Their goal is to build communities to save and invest and hopefully move out making room for the next wave of migrants For some success is years away for others it will never come at all As vibrant places of exchange arrival cities have long been indicators of social health Whether it s Paris in 1789 or Tehran in 1978 whenever migrant populations are systematically ignored we should expect violence and extremism But as the award winning journalist Doug Saunders demonstrates when we make proper investments in our arrival cities through transportation education security and citizenship a prosperous middle class develops Saunders takes us on a tour of these vital centers from Maryland to Shenzhen from the favelas of Rio to the shantytowns of Mumbai from Los Angeles to Nairobi He uncovers the stories both inspiring and heartbreaking of the people who live there and he shows us how the life or death of our arrival cities will determine the shape of our future

Conversations on Empathy Francesca Mezzenzana, Daniela Peluso, 2023-01-16 In the aftermath of a global pandemic amidst new and ongoing wars genocide inequality and staggering ecological collapse some in the public and political arena have argued that we are in desperate need of greater empathy be this with our neighbours refugees war victims the vulnerable or disappearing animal and plant species This interdisciplinary volume asks the crucial questions How does a better understanding of empathy contribute if at all to our understanding of others How is it implicated in the ways we perceive understand and constitute others as subjects Conversations on Empathy examines how empathy might be enacted and experienced either as a way to highlight forms of otherness or instead to overcome what might otherwise appear to be irreducible differences It explores the ways in which empathy enables us to understand imagine and create sameness and otherness in our everyday intersubjective encounters focusing on a varied range of radical others others who are perceived as being dramatically different from oneself With a focus on the importance of empathy to understand difference the book contends that the role of empathy is critical now more than ever for thinking about local and global challenges of interconnectedness care and justice

Everyday Europe Recchi, Ettore, Favell, Adrian, 2019-02-13 Drawing on unique research and rich data on cross border practices this book offers an empirically based view on Europeans interconnections in everyday life It looks at the ways in which EU residents have been getting closer across national frontiers in their everyday experiences of foreign countries work travel personal networks but also their knowledge consumption of foreign products and attitudes towards foreign culture These evolving European dimensions have been enabled by the EU backed legal opening to transnational economic and cultural transactions while also differing according to national contexts The book considers how people reconcile their increasing cross border interconnections and a politically separating Europe of nation states and national interests

Gender, Religion and Education in a Chaotic Postmodern World Zehavit Gross, Lynn Davies, Al-Khansaa Diab, 2012-12-04 The immense changes that the world is undergoing in terms of globalization and migration of peoples have had a profound effect on cultures and identities The question is whether this means shifts in religious identities for women and men in different contexts whether such shifts are seen as beneficial negative or insufficient or whether social change actually means new conservatism or even fundamentalisms Surrounding these questions is the role of education is in any change or new contradiction This unique book enhances an interdisciplinary discourse about the complex intersections between gender religion and education in the contemporary world Literature in the social sciences and humanities have expanded our understanding of women s involvement in almost every aspect of life yet the combined religious educational aspect is still an under studied and often under theorized field of research How people experience their religious identity in a new context or country is also a theme now needing more complex attention Questions of the body visibility and invisibility are receiving new treatments This book fills these gaps The book provides a strong comparative perspective with 15 countries or contexts represented The context of education and learning covers schools higher education non formal education religious institutions adult literacy curriculum and textbooks Overall the book reveals a great complexity and often contradiction in modern negotiations of religion and secularism by girls and boys women and men and a range of possibilities for change It provides a theoretical and practical resource for researchers compulsory population transfers of the twentieth century They have also been the sites for large magnitudes of emigration during the second half of the twentieth century creating influential diasporas in European cities such as London and Berlin Discrimination has been both the cause and result of migration while internal problems compelled citizens to emigrate from their countries blatant discriminatory and ideological constructs shaped their experiences in their countries of arrival Read together the Partition emerges from the essays in Part I not as a pathology specific to the Balkans Middle East or South Asia but as a central problematic of the new political realities of decolonization and nation formation The essays in Part II demonstrate the layered histories and multiple migration paths that have shaped the experiences of Berliners and Londoners This analysis furthers the study of modernism and migration across the borders of not only the nation state but also class race and gender As a result this book will be of interest to a broad multidisciplinary academic audience including students and faculty artists architects and planners as well as non specialist general public interested in visual arts architecture and urban literature
