Hodge, 2007-11-30 In 1800 Europeans governed about one third of the world's land surface by the start of World War I in 1914 Europeans had imposed some form of political or economic ascendancy on over 80 percent of the globe The basic structure of global and European politics in the twentieth century was fashioned in the previous century out of the clash of competing imperial interests and the effects both beneficial and harmful of the imperial powers on the societies they dominated This encyclopedia offers current detailed information on the major world powers and their global empires as well as on the people events ideas and movements both European and non European that shaped the Age of Imperialism The Rise of Women's Transnational Activism Marie Sandell, 2015-01-26 What characterised women's international co operation in the interwar period How did female activists from different countries and continents relate to one another Marie Sandell here explores the changing experiences of women involved in the major international women's organisations including the International Council of Women International Alliance of Women Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the International Federation of University Women as well as the changing compositions and aims of the organisations themselves Moving beyond an Anglo American focus Sandell analyses what the term international sisterhood meant in this broader context which for the first time included women from the beyond the Western world Focusing on shifting identities this book investigates how notions of sisterhood were played out and contested during the interwar period and will be invaluable reading for scholars of women's history and twentieth century world history Imperialism in the Modern World William Bowman, Frank Chiteji, J. Megan Greene, 2016-11-03 Imperialism in the Modern World combines narrative primary and secondary sources and visual documents to examine global relations in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The three co editors Professors Bowman Chiteji and Greene have taught for many years global history classes in a variety of institutions They wrote Imperialism in the Modern World to solve the problem of allowing teachers to combine primary and secondary texts easily and systematically to follow major themes in global history some readers use primary materials exclusively Some focus on secondary arguments This book is more focused than other readers on the markets for those teachers who are offering more specialized world history courses one important trend in global history is away from simply trying to cover everything to teaching real connections in more chronologically and thematically focused courses The reader also provides a genuine diversity of global perspectives and invites students to study seriously world history from a critical framework Too many readers offer a smorgasbord approach to world history that leaves students dazed and confused This reader avoids that approach and will therefore solve many problems that teachers have in constructing and teaching world history courses at the introductory or upper division levels The reader will allow show students how to read historical documents through a hands on demonstration in the introduction The book also incorporates images as visual documents Finally the book conceives of global history in the widest possible terms it contains pieces on political diplomatic economic and military history to be sure but it also has selections on technology medicine women the environment social changes and cultural patterns Other readers can not match this text s breadth because they are chronologically and thematically so extended

Colonialism & Modernity Paul Gillen,Devleena Ghosh,2007 Few books tell such a broad global history using an interdisciplinary approach that blends historical and cultural scholarship Author based at UTS Masculinity and the Other Heather Ellis,Jessica Meyer,2009-01-14 Histories of masculinity have generally examined both social ideologies of masculinity and subjective male identities within frameworks that define them against the feminine Yet historians and sociologists have increasingly argued that men have been and continue to be defined both socially and subjectively as much by their relations to other men as in relation to women This collection brings together the work of scholars of masculinities working in a variety of fields including literature history and art history to examine some of the forms of otherness against which ideas of masculinity have been defined throughout history The collection reflects the current breadth of scholarship relating to the study of masculine alterity While the subjects addressed are largely historical the time span covered is broad and the disciplinary approaches to the subject matter are equally wide ranging A huge variety of men masculine behaviours and definitions of masculinity are considered in an exciting and invigorating collection that showcases both established academics and emerging scholars in the field Uncivil War James D. Le Sueur,2021-10-19 Uncivil War is a provocative study of the intellectuals who confronted the loss of France s most prized overseas possession colonial Algeria Tracing the intellectual history of one of the most violent and pivotal wars of European decolonization James D Le Sueur illustrates how key figures such as Albert Camus Jean Paul Sartre Simone de Beauvoir Germaine Tillion Jacques Soustelle Raymond Aron Claude L vi Strauss Albert Memmi Frantz Fanon Mouloud Feraoun Jean Amrouche and Pierre Bourdieu agonized over the Algerian question As Le Sueur argues these individuals and others forged new notions of the nation and nationalism giving rise to a politics of identity that continues to influence debate around the world This edition features an important new chapter on the intellectual responses to the recent torture debates in France the civil war in Algeria and terrorism since September 11 Reading(s) / across / Borders ,2020-03-23 This collection emphasizes a cross disciplinary approach to the relevance of borders and bordering as a spatial paradigm in Anglophone studies It sets out to provide a critical counter narrative to the 1990s globalization argument of a borderless world by insisting on the significant roles borders play The essays range in subject matter from geography history British and American literature to painting and Reggae music and map out different conceptualisations of the border place line process contact zones etc The volume s cross border narrative serves as a point of communication between the local and the global between Europe and America between different literary and artistic genres thus challenging the divides of geography and literature between real territorial borders and their fictional counterparts
