O'Reilly, 2025-03-01 Gone Feral Unruly Women and the Undoing of Normative Femininity is an edited collection that probes the concept of ferality as it relates to and intersects with traditional patriarchal dictates of normative femininity The collection appropriately is a creative hodgepodge of feral representations and enactments that span multiple disciplines and social and existential dimensions and utilizes textual and intertextual analysis creative non fiction feminist theory critical animal studies literature media analysis poetry and artwork to explore the complex and contradictory nature of ferality as it exists within outside and on the margins of patriarchal culture Ultimately the collection seeks to understand and showcase how the concept of ferality may be understood as an inevitable consequence of and potential resistance to patriarchal culture and the dictates of normative femininity that have long snared feminine potential caged feminine spirits and neutered feminine authenticity Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10

What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology Caribbean Ghostwriting

Erica L. Johnson, 2009 Caribbean Ghostwriting addresses a question central to the fields of postcolonial feminist and African diasporic studies how are we to know the colonial past when the lives of colonized and enslaved people were largely written out of history Caribbean authors Michelle Cliff Maryse Conde and Dionne Brand address the silences and gaps of historiography by fleshing out overlooked historical figures in literary form These authors do not simply reconstruct lost lives but rather they foreground the tension between the real material traces of people s lives and the fact of their erasure In novels that are at once historical biographical and artistic they portray real but sparsely documented and therefore haunting histories through a strategy identifiable as ghostwriting Erica L Johnson defines ghostwriting as an important genre of Caribbean literature through which authors literally ghostwrite stories for lost historical figures even while they poetically preserve the unspeakable nature of the archival lacunae their novels engage Erica L Johnson teaches world literature at Wagner College
