Developing A Learning Culture In Nonprofit Organizations:

Developing a Learning Culture in Nonprofit Organizations Stephen J. Gill, 2010 Nonprofit organizations are under increasing pressure to demonstrate impact and that the funds raised to operate their organizations are maximized and used effectively This book demonstrates how to create a culture of learning intentional learning from reflection and feedback focused on successes and failures that will lead to ongoing performance measurement and improvement Because nonprofit organizations rely heavily on volunteers and are focused on mission not money it is critical for them to create a culture in which learning is a motivator for change The book breaks down learning into four levels individual team whole organization and community Learning at each of these levels is described and then specific tools are presented The tools are hands on and practical which facilitate reflection and feedback

Internal Evaluation in Non-Profit Organisations Leanne M. Kelly, Alison Rogers, 2022-06-01 Focused on the interpersonal aspects of internal evaluation in non profit organisations this book presents practice based discussions centred on six key topics identified through the authors experience as evaluation practitioners Internal Evaluation in Non Profit Organisations Practitioner Perspectives on Theory Research and Practice is not a step by step how to guide instead each chapter unpacks an aspect of internal evaluation in non profits that is paid insufficient heed in the existing literature Written by and for internal evaluation practitioners the book contains a plethora of practical strategies and critical analysis of thought provoking topics that are of particular interest and importance to internal evaluators in non profit settings The authors understand the pressures facing practitioners and non profit organisations and share their insights around improving evaluation s ability to be efficient embedded useful and meaningful This book will be of interest to researchers scholars and students focusing on non profit management and will hold specific value for internal evaluators who want to harness their unique and influential position to help organisations achieve their goals Further this book is ideal for individuals wanting to think critically about evaluation and improve evaluation utilisation by developing their professional capability building teamwork skills using informal everyday data incorporating theory and developing fruitful relationships with external evaluators
