Combining Paid Work And Family Care Policies And Experiences In International Perspective:

Combining Paid Work and Family Care Teppo Kröger, Sue Yeandle, 2014-10-15 As populations age around the world increasing efforts are required from both families and governments to secure care and support for older and disabled people At the same time both women and men are expected to increase and lengthen their participation in paid work which makes combining caring and working a burning issue for social and employment policy and economic sustainability International discussion about the reconciliation of work and care has previously focused mostly on childcare Combining paid work and family care widens the debate bringing into discussion the experiences of those providing support to their partners older relatives and disabled or seriously ill children The book analyses the situations of these working carers in Nordic liberal and East Asian welfare systems Highlighting what can be learned from individual experiences the book analyses the changing welfare and labour market policies which shape the lives of working carers in Finland Sweden Australia England Japan and Taiwan

Combining Paid Work and Family Care Teppo Kröger, Susan Yeandle, 2013 Highlighting what can be learned from individual experiences the book analyses the changing welfare and labour market policies which shape the lives of working carers in Finland Sweden Australia England Japan and Taiwan

Combining Work and Care Kate Hamblin, Jason Heyes, Janet Fast, 2024-06-25 Available Open Access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence The proportion of employees with caring responsibilities is growing and as a result policies that support working carers are becoming increasingly important Written and informed by national experts this is the first publication to provide a detailed examination of the development and implementation of carer leave policies and policies in nine countries across Asia Oceania Europe and North America It compares the origins content and implications of national policies and practices intended to enable workers to provide care to family members and friends while remaining in paid employment known as carer leave

Everyday Gender at Work in Taiwan Ting-Fang Chin, 2018-02-09 This book explores professional women s experiences of gender in the Taiwanese workplace in the wake of the rapid transformation of the country s economy identifying attitudes to gender in a heterosexist and heteronormative social culture It contributes to understanding women s relationships with their superiors and peers at work and the strategies that they have used to negotiate with these role partners to achieve their own personal and career goals It notes that compared to women in other East Asian economies women in Taiwan have a more consistent career trajectory and that the local women s movement and activism has brought Taiwan a long way in improving women s employment rights but argues that it is too soon to claim that gender inequality has been banished from the workplace Based on qualitative in depth interviews the book explores the participants accounts gendered and heteronormative practices at work in two contexts organisational management and everyday social encounters It investigates gender inequality at work by focusing on women employees everyday experiences and examines structural and institutional factors affecting gendered arrangements as well as personal experiences in negotiating gender A key read for students and scholars in gender and employment studies this book will also be of interest to those working within the field of employment sociology and organisational culture

Local Welfare Policy Making in European Cities Dagmar Kutsar, Marjo Kuronen, 2015-04-24 This book focuses on how EU welfare policies are implemented at the local level in 11 European cities and how local policy making addresses women's care responsibilities The book studies the complex combination of and the relationships between local political processes policies institutions structural conditions and outputs as well as outcomes for the women's labour market integration It demonstrates how cultural settings and multi level governance patterns form the playground for local policy makers to formulate their welfare policies concerning service provision The book further demonstrates how local production systems and the situation of the local labour market influence the prospects that women have in working and caring EU welfare policy promotes the labour market integration of women as well as gender equality The provision of adequate care services is vital in supporting women's employment Within comparative welfare research the focus has been on the national welfare systems and policies even if care services are overwhelmingly provided by local authorities that in many EU member states enjoy considerable autonomy This book fills the gap in understanding local welfare policy making from a comparative perspective

The Palgrave Handbook of Family Policy Rense Nieuwenhuis, Wim Van Lancker, 2020-12-14 This open access handbook provides a multilevel view on family policies combining insights on family policy outcomes at different levels of policymaking supra national organizations national states sub national or regional levels and finally smaller organizations and employers At each of these levels a multidisciplinary group of expert scholars assess policies and their implementation such as child income support childcare services parental leave and leave to provide care to frail and elderly family members The chapters evaluate their impact in improving children's development and equal opportunities promoting gender equality regulating fertility productivity and economic inequality and take an intersectional perspective related to gender class and family diversity The editors conclude by presenting a new research agenda based on five major challenges pertaining to the levels of policy implementation in particular globalization and decentralization austerity and marketization inequality changing family relations and welfare states adapting to women's empowered roles

Care of Older Persons Mala Kapur Shankardass, 2024-10-23 This book explores the implications and significant ethical social economic and health challenges that an ageing world population presents It provides valuable insights on concerns related to providing organizing planning and managing care for older persons in both formal and informal settings As the number of older persons increases rapidly around the globe caring for them is a very important aspect of all ageing and aged societies While in most countries the care of older persons is provided informally by family members the changing social scene family structures and work and employment patterns are leading many nations to create provisions for formal care through institutions or paid services of caregivers This book offers perspectives on formal and informal care from countries such as Japan the Netherlands the USA India South Africa and Poland among others The essays in this book underline a rights based approach and focus on ethical social economic health and legal aspects of care as they pertain to the universal phenomena of ageing as well as the specific demographic and epidemiological realities of the selected countries They discuss concerns such as long term care provisions catering to the needs of people affected by dementia providing residential care taking the needs of family care providers into account the growing requirement for paid care workers and channelizing training of both skilled and semi skilled care providers to suit the needs of older people This volume would be of interest to scholars and those working in the fields of sociology health studies age and ageing psychology social work medical sciences nursing and public policy It will also be useful to NGO sector workers administrators as well as grassroots workers involved with the care of older persons

Care Poverty and Unmet Needs Teppo Kröger, Nicola Brimblecombe, Ricardo Rodrigues, Kirstein Rummery, 2025-05-23 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence As populations age around the world there is an urgent need to address the inadequate and unequal provision of care and support to older and disabled people This book represents the first collective effort to use the concept of care poverty to analyse unmet needs and inequalities in care at an international level and from a social policy perspective It presents pioneering empirical studies and novel theoretical and methodological approaches to unmet needs and care poverty This volume points the way forward for international care research and in particular for the growing field of research on inadequate care and support Aging and the Family Patricia Neff Claster, Sampson Lee Blair, 2021-02-25 This collection makes a crucial contribution by collating research on aging and the family from an international perspective Providing this wide scope of quality research the volume equips readers to better assess how aging and its related issues are affecting families from multiple backgrounds

Globalizing Welfare Stein Kuhnle, Per Selle, Sven E.O. Hort, 2019 From the welfare state s origins in Europe the idea of human welfare being organized through a civilized institutionalized and uncorrupt state has caught the imagination of social activists and policy makers around the world This is particularly influential where rapid social development is taking place amidst growing social and gender inequality This book reflects on the growing academic and political interest in global social policy and globalizing welfare and pays particular attention to developments in Northern European and North East Asian countries
