belonging and sustainability In Another Haul Narrative Stewardship and Cultural Sustainability at the Lewis Family Fishery author Charlie Groth highlights the traditional vernacular and everyday cultural expressions of the family and crew to understand how community culture and the environment intersect Groth argues there is a system of narrative here that combines verbal activities and everyday activities On the basis of over two decades of participation and observation interviews surveys and a wide variety of published sources Groth identifies a phenomenon she calls narrative stewardship This narrative system emphasizing place community and commitment in turn encourages environmental and cultural stewardship tradition and community Intricate and embedded the system appears invisible but careful study unpacks and untangles how people often unconsciously foster sustainability Though an ethnography of an occupation the volume encourages readers to consider what arises as special about all cultures and what needs to be seen and preserved
