Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter?ajda; Jon Stewart, 2016 Overtourism and Tourism Education Hugues Séraphin, Anca C. Yallop, 2020-11-05 Since 2017 the term overtourism has become the buzzword for destinations suffering the strain of tourism It is a critical issue for the 21st century and beyond and to date has only been examined from a tourism industry perspective This book takes a different stand by investigating overtourism from a tourism education perspective The recent global COVID 19 pandemic was expected to halt travel and arguably overtourism However industry experts and researchers share the opinion that instead of declining overtourism is simply experiencing a shift with a swarm of second home and domestic travel that is likely to engulf many tourism destinations Against this backdrop the issue of overtourism remains relevant and studies on ways to cultivate responsible consumer mindsets to deal with overtourism and other sustainability issues in the tourism industry are called for This book focuses on education as a transformative and strategic tool to tackle overtourism and related negative impacts It presents original research on the topics of overtourism education and sustainability and puts forward a range of practical and transformative tourism education strategies to mitigate overtourism and to promote the sustainable development of destinations This book will be of great interest to upper level students researchers and academics in tourism development studies cultural studies and sustainability as well as professionals in the field of tourism management Latin America's New Left and the Politics of Gender Karen Kampwirth, 2011-07-26 The majority of Latin Americans now live in countries that are governed by democratically elected governments on the political left which is unprecedented in that region This book analyzes this occurrence by asking a question that up until now has been largely ignored in the literature on the contemporary Latin American left to what extent have these governments governed with and promoting the interests of the women s movements that are an important part of their base of support This question is examined by focusing on a critical case that is rarely analyzed in the literature on the new Latin American left the case of Nicaragua The broader implications for Latin America will be shown making this book of interest to researchers and graduate students in Latin American studies as well as gender studies and political science Catalan Cinema Anton Pujol, Jaume Martí-Olivella, 2024-03-26 Catalan Cinema offers a theoretical reading of the most relevant cinematic productions to emerge from Catalonia in the last twenty years The essays in this collection examine cinema in relation to the Escola de Barcelona The Barcelona School a group of cinema directors that drew inspiration from British pop art Free

Cinema and the Nouvelle Vague to create works that defied and challenged the Franco dictatorship Highlighting the aesthetic social and political elements of Catalan cinematography contributors to this volume explore what young directors have in common with works created by more notable directors such as Joaquim Jord Jacinto Esteva Jordi Grau and Pere Portabella Catalan Cinema focuses on the importance of modern production and its connection with the avant garde and underground cinema from the Barcelona School Establishing a cinematic genealogy the volume ultimately questions if Catalan cinema's own push for self expression may be interpreted as a connection to Catalonia's current drive for independence

Convivencia Martin Lundsteen, 2022-04-14 While Convivencia is a specific historical term that has come to represent an idea of peaceful co existence Convivencia Urban Space and Migration in a Small Catalan Town complicates this simplistic vision Instead it shows how convivencia has been and is indeed always conflict ridden by scrutinising the relations between cultural diversity and social conflicts and considering why some social conflicts are said to be inherently cultural It does this through a multi scalar extended case study of a small town in Northern Catalonia Spain Starting from an ethnography it sheds light on the multiple local global processes inherent to the social construction of the migrant problem and its solutions The book analyzes the simultaneously local global transformation of migration and societies connecting the local processes of space and place making in Salt with the more extensive processes of migration economic crisis and social transformation and finally the responses to these changes from the local society institutions and NGOs This work allows for a deeper understanding of the complex web of urban social and political transformation in which migration as a phenomenon takes part Focusing mainly on the interaction between mobility and settlement and the socio cultural processes at different scales through the vectors of production and reproduction of space it advances findings on the new social question in Europe

EU Federalism and

Constitutionalism Andrew Glencross, Alexander H. Trechsel, 2010-10-21 EU Federalism and Constitutionalism The Legacy of Altiero Spinelli edited by Andrew Glencross and Alexander H Trechsel represents the first book length study of the travails of the implementation of federalism at the European level from the perspective of Altiero Spinelli's ideas and his political life which were both devoted to a federally united Europe It is also a timely publication given the protracted struggle to implement a new EU institutional architecture the 2009 Lisbon Treaty that is already being tested by the fallout from the global financial crisis This fallout has brought into stark relief the tensions within the EU over the question of enhancing solidarity and federal unity or remaining a looser association of sovereign states Hence by examining the successes and failures of federalism within the EU system the book seeks to explain not only how the EU has reached its current impasse
