Kingmaker Sonia Purnell, 2025-10-28 A thorough account of Harriman's rise which also manages to be a brisk twisty read riveting and revelatory The New Yorker Rigorous but rollicking The New York Times Named a BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR by The New Yorker Apple Books The Economist Politico Town Country The Guardian Financial Times The Spectator The Telegraph The Oldie Irish Examiner Mail on Sunday Daily Express London Standard and The Times Literary Supplement and a Must Read Book of Fall 2024 by People Magazine From the New York Times bestselling and award winning author of A WOMAN OF NO IMPORTANCE an electrifying re-examination of one of the 20th century's greatest unsung power players When Pamela Churchill Harriman died in 1997 the obituaries that followed were predictably scathing and many were downright sexist Written off as a mere courtesan and social climber her true legacy was overshadowed by a glamorous social life and her infamous erotic adventures Much of what she did behind the scenes on both sides of the Atlantic remained invisible and secret That is until now with a wealth of fresh research interviews and newly discovered sources Sonia Purnell unveils for the first time the full spectacular story of how she left an indelible mark on the world today At age 20 Churchill's beloved daughter-in-law became a secret weapon during World War II strategically winning dining and seducing diplomats and generals to help win over American sentiment and secrets to the British cause against Hitler After the war she helped to transform Fiat heir Gianni Agnelli into Italy's uncrowned king on the international stage and after moving to the US brought a struggling Democratic party back to life hand-picking Bill Clinton from obscurity and vaulting him to the presidency Picked as Ambassador to France she deployed her legendary subtle powers to charm world leaders and help efforts to bring peace to Bosnia playing her part in what was arguably the high water mark of American global supremacy There are few at any time who have operated as close to the center of power over five decades and two continents and there is practically no one in 20th Century politics culture and fashion whose lives she did not touch including the Kennedys Truman Capote Aly Khan Kay Graham Gloria Steinem Ed Murrow and Frank Sinatra Written with the novelistic richness and investigative rigor that only Sonia Purnell could bring to this story full of sex politics yachts palaces and fabulous clothes KINGMAKER re-asserts Harriman's rightful place at the heart of history

A Curious Friendship Anna Thomasson, 2015-03-26 I loved A Curious Friendship Anna Thomasson in her first book has brilliantly captured this strange coterie Sir Roy Strong The winter of 1924 Edith Olivier alone for the first time at the age of 51 thought her life had come to an end For Rex Whistler a 19-year-old art student life was just beginning They were to start an intimate and unlikely friendship that would transform their lives Gradually Edith's world opened up and she became a writer Her home the Daye House in a wooded corner of the Wilton estate became a sanctuary for Whistler and the other brilliant and beautiful younger men of her circle among them Siegfried Sassoon Stephen Tennant William Walton John Betjeman the Sitwells and Cecil Beaton for whom she was all the muses The story is set against the backdrop of a period that spanned the madcap parties of the 1920s the sophistication of the 1930s and the drama and austerity of the Second World War With an extraordinary cast of friends and acquaintances from the Royal Family to Tallulah Bankhead Anna Thomasson's A Curious Friendship brings to life for the first time the curious unlikely and fascinating friendship of a bluestocking and a bright young thing The Crichel Boys Simon Fenwick, 2021-02-25 In 1945 Eddy Sackville West Desmond Shawe Taylor and Eardley Knollys writers for the New Statesman and a National Trust administrator purchased Long Crichel House an old rectory with no electricity and an inadequate water supply In this improbable place the last English literary salon began Quieter and less formal than the famed London literary salons Long Crichel became an idiosyncratic experiment in communal living Sackville West Shawe Taylor and Knollys later joined by the literary critic Raymond Mortimer became members of one another's surrogate families and their companionship became a stimulus for writing for them and their guests Long Crichel's visitors book reveals a Who's Who of the arts in post war Britain Nancy Mitford Benjamin Britten Laurie Lee Cyril Connolly Somerset Maugham E M Forster Cecil Beaton Vita Sackville West and Harold Nicolson who were attracted by the good food generous quantities of drink and excellent conversation For Frances Partridge and James Lees Milne two of the twentieth century's finest diarists Long Crichel became a second home and their lives became bound up with the house Yet there was to be more to the story of the house than what critics variously referred to as a group of hyphenated gentlemen aesthetes and a prose factory In later years the house and its inhabitants were to weather the aftershocks of the Crichel Down Affair the Wolfenden Report and the AIDS crisis The story of Long Crichel is also part of the development of the National Trust and other conservation movements Through the lens of Long Crichel archivist and writer Simon Fenwick tells a wider story of the great upheaval that took place in the second half of the twentieth century Intimate and revealing he brings to life Long Crichel's golden gossip years and in doing so unveils a missing link in English literary and cultural history
