Confronting Oppression Restoring Justice From Policy Analysis To Social Action:

Confronting Oppression, Restoring Justice Katherine S. Van Wormer, 2004 An empowerment approach is the organizing framework for this text which examines the nature of oppression who does it and why from the standpoint of biological and social psychological aspects The impact on victim survivors is explored through the inclusion of brief personal narratives recording grueling consciousness raising experiences This book is appropriate for courses in oppression racism and policy analysis A small paperback it can be used as a supplement to a course such as human behavior and the social environment Divided into two parts the first of which focuses on oppression and the second on the twin concept of injustice Confronting Oppression and Restoring Justice has as its major task the addressing of the age old question for social workers How can we avoid participating in the oppression Or working from the outside How can we help the casualties of economic restructuring or the victims of structural or interpersonal violence Examples of exemplary programs and actions to confront oppression and injustice are provided

Confronting Oppression, Restoring Justice Katherine S. Van Wormer, Laura Kaplan, Cindy Juby, 2013-10 Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Micro Level Katherine Van Wormer, 2017 Unique to Human Behavior and the Social Environment Micro Level is the focus on trauma and resilience in its exploration of human behavior across the life span Illustrations are drawn from the arts as well as recent brain research from recent biological research
