Life Scripts Richard G. Erskine, 2018-05-08 Life Scripts A Transactional Analysis of Unconscious Relational Patterns is an exciting collection of contemporary writings on Life Script theory and psychotherapeutic methods Each chapter describes an evolution of Eric Berne's original theory and brings together a stimulating range of international perspectives theoretical positions clinical experiences and psychotherapy practices as well as a psychotherapy story that illustrates the theory The concept of Life Scripts has frequently been associated with the determinism represented in theoretical scripts yet this book offers some new and diverse perspectives A few contributors address the significance of early childhood experiences in forming a Life Script while others reflect the perspectives of post modernism constructivism existential philosophy neuroscience developmental research mythology and the importance of narrative An illustrious group of authors has integrated a broad professional perspective into their understanding of a theory of mind theories of personality and the methods of psychotherapy Each chapter provides a unique theoretical perspective some are provocative and challenge Berne's and others long held notions about Life Scripts Media of Reason Matthias Vogel, 2012 Matthias Vogel challenges the belief that reason is determined solely by our discursive linguistic abilities as communicative beings In his view the medium of language is not the only force of reason that music art and other nonlinguistic forms of communication are also significant

Playscript, 1967 The Point of It John McGreal, 2015-02-28 The Point of It is part of a series of three Artists Books that represent three stages of an artistic journey in the years 1995 2006 exploring the dialectic of mark word and image A recurrent theme in each is that of surprise The Point of It describes a further surprise in 1999 involving a shift into the art of punctuation Prints like www where to begin com explore the aesthetic possibilities of the standard marks of punctuation in the space of writing The emergent concept of The Punctage has facilitated a typology of forms also opening up the affinity of punctuation with musical notation and hence the musicality of textuality The three books show how working through these stages in visual art was a condition for the spacial writing and reading of both sound and silence in my it to you 2013 The Book of It 2010 as well as In The Face of It 2013 The Contemporary History Play Benjamin Poore, 2024-05-30 Something exciting is happening with the contemporary history play New writing by playwrights such as Jackie Sibblies Drury Samuel Adamson Hannah Khalil Cordelia Lynn and Lucy Kirkwood makes powerful theatrical use of the past but does not fit into critics familiar categories of historical drama In this book Benjamin Poore provides readers with tools to name and critically analyse these changes The Contemporary History Play contends that many history plays are becoming more complex and layered in their aesthetic approaches as playwrights work through the experience of being surrounded by numerous and varied forms of historical representation in the twenty first century For theatre scholars this book offers a means of interpreting how new writing relies on the past and notions of historicity to generate meaning and resonance in the present For playwrights and students of playwriting the book is a guide to the history play's recent past and to the state of the art what techniques and formulas have been popular the tropes that are widely used and how artists have found ways of renewing or overturning established conventions The Arts, Community and Cultural Democracy NA NA,2016-04-30 This interdisciplinary and international collection explores the role of the arts in shaping contemporary religion and politics The authors ask about the future of viable communities and democratic cultures in a postmodern world looking for clues in artistic practices and institutions and their impact on how people create history and interpret texts The collection shows that the arts are central to struggles over the shape of society in the new millennium Radio Script Catalog United States. Office of Education. Educational Radio Script Exchange, Gertrude Golden Broderick,1946 Radio Script Catalog Gertrude Golden Broderick,1950 Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz,2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children s and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges Performing the Secular Milija Gluhovic,Jisha Menon,2017-09-14 With a foreword from Rustom Bharucha this book is a timely anthology which aims to unsettle our habituated modes of thinking about the place of the secular in cultural productions The last decade alone has witnessed many religious protests against cultural productions which have led in some cases to the closure of theatre and opera performances Threats to artists led to the exile of Indian painter MF Husain and murder of Dutch film maker Theo van Gogh the controversy over the depiction of the Islamic prophet Muhammad in the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten in 2005 led to the cancellation of performances of Mozart s Idomeneo for the season Offering fresh and provocative readings that probe the limits and promise of secularity in relation to questions of performance politics and the public sphere this book will be invaluable to scholars who seek to understand the dramatic rise of politicized theology in our new century
