Women in John's Gospel Susan Miller, 2023-01-26 Closely examines John s portrayal of women in relation to discipleship and the theme of new creation arguing that these depictions are influenced by his apocalyptic world view By employing historical and literary methods of biblical interpretation to analyse John s presentation of women and gender Miller explores the extent to which John gives any indications of the female role in both John's community and the beginnings of the Christian faith. Beginning with the Virgin Mary's portrayal at the wedding at Cana where she prompts Jesus to carry out his first sign, Miller then thoroughly assesses several crucial female characters in John to stress how Jesus' female followers truly recognise him as the Messiah. These include the Samaritan woman, Martha and Mary of Bethany, and Mary Magdalene and her encounter with Jesus in the garden. Crucially, Miller suggests that John's frequent use of woman links these female followers, particularly Jesus' venerated mother, with the figure of Eve in Genesis, and she concludes that women are associated with the hour of Jesus when he casts out the ruler of the world and inaugurates the new creation.

Conversations with Scripture Jay Sidebotham, 2015-03. This book guides readers into conversation with Paul's letter to the Romans. The author helps readers listen to what that letter said to the people to whom it was written and to hear what it says to us today. Readers will bring their own reflections, personal concerns, and questions to the table as we let this letter challenge us with meaning, letting it read the reader. The thesis of this book is that the letter has demonstrated transforming power to renew lives and the church through a focus on worship, a rigorous assessment of the human condition, especially the failure of human religiosity, a claim of transforming power in the ongoing life of Christ, an expansive vision of who is included in God's life and love, a call to practical application and proclamation of the gospel.
