2016 the study enquires into people's ethical religious and moral motivations through the use of the ethnographic method and thick description. Conversations and interviews with officials, community leaders, students, entrepreneurs, professionals and blue collar workers were subjected to close scrutiny to foreground societal change and churning. To capture perspectives absent or deliberately overlooked in mainstream public discourse and scholarship, fieldwork was conducted in locations ranging from homes, offices and university dorms to the shrines of saints. In listening closely to how people talk about their religious practices, the book addresses the question of how Islamic subjectivities are being forged in Turkey. The study unveils how people are pushed to re-think old practices and attitudes in the process of reinterpreting Islam in light of contemporary concerns. Filling a gap in the literature where micro-level grounded analyses of culture and society are relatively rare, this book is a key resource for readers interested in the anthropology of religion and gender ethnography. Turkey and the Middle East

Hizmet in Transitions Paul Weller, 2022-04-21 In this open access monograph, Paul Weller explores how the movement known as Hizmet, meaning service, is undergoing a period of transitions in Europe. Inspired by the teaching and practice of the Turkish Islamic scholar Fethullah Gülen, Hizmet has been active in Europe and other continents for several decades. It has always been subject to some degree of contestation, which has intensified following the July 2016 coup attempt in Turkey, for which the current Turkish government holds Fethullah Gülen and Hizmet responsible, a claim they strongly deny. In Turkey, thousands of people associated with Hizmet have been imprisoned. In Europe, pressures have been brought to bear on the movement and its activities. In charting a way forward, Hizmet finds itself in a significant transitional period, the nature and possible future trajectories of which are explored in this volume. The book is informed by a comprehensive literature review and a recent research project which includes primary research interviews with key Hizmet figures in Europe and beyond. It contends that to properly understand Hizmet in Europe, one has to situate it in its interactive engagement both with its diverse European national contexts and with Fethullah Gülen's teaching and practice.

Cross-cultural Dialogue on the Virtues Trudy D. Conway, 2014-07-10 This book explores the development of the influential worldwide Hizmet movement inspired by the Turkish scholar Fethullah Gülen, known for his moderate Islamic emphasis on peaceful relations among diverse people. It provides a detailed study of Gülen's account of the virtues and argues that they provide the key to understanding this thinker and the movement he inspired from its initial establishment of hospitality houses through the growth of worldwide schools, hospitals, media outlets, charitable associations and dialogue centers. The book analyzes the distinctive virtues that shaped the Hizmet movement's ethos as well as continue to sustain its expansive energy from the core virtues of tolerance, hospitality, compassion and charity to a host of related virtues including wisdom, humility, mildness, patience, mercy, integrity and hope. It also examines the Islamic and Sufi roots of Gülen's understanding of the virtues as well as presents a comparative study of Gülen's account of the virtues in dialogue with prominent thinkers of the Western philosophical tradition and the religious traditions of Christianity, Judaism and Buddhism.

The Hizmet movement provides living witness to the power and efficacy of tolerance dialogue and peaceful relations among diverse people This book offers an insightful portrait of the core virtues of this movement and the scholar who fully explored them within his writing It will appeal to readers interested in virtue ethics character education cross cultural studies interfaith dialogue and the role of moderate Islam today
