Time for Architecture Robert Adam, 2020-02-24 Using time as a unifying theme this book critically analyses many of the key concepts in modern architecture and urban design such as modernity innovation timelessness and sustainability Drawing on the statements of contemporary architects and with reference to a wide range of sources from history philosophy sociology and anthropology as well as studies in diverse subjects such as science fiction colonialism and archaeology the text provides a new perspective on much of the thinking behind contemporary design In addition it develops original and practical theories on the meanings of modernity the variable ageing of the environment the central role of longevity in sustainability the significance of authenticity in conservation and the relationship between collective memory and tradition

Speaking of Buildings Naomi Stead, Janina Gosseye, Deborah van der Plaats, 2019-10-15 By and large architectural historians use texts drawings and photographs to craft their narratives Oral testimony from those who actually occupy or construct buildings is rarely taken as seriously Speaking of Buildings offers a rebuttal theorizing the radical potential of a methodology that has historically been cast as unreliable Essays by an international group of scholars look at varied topics from the role of gossip in undermining masculine narratives in architecture to workers accounts of building with cement in midcentury London to a sound art piece created by oral testimonies from Los Angeles public housing residents In sum the authors call for a renewed form of listening to enrich our understanding of what buildings are what they do and what they mean to people About Star Architecture

Nadia Alaily-Mattar, Davide Ponzini, Alain Thierstein, 2020-03-16 Cities across the world have been resorting to star architects to brand their projects spark urban regeneration and market the city image internationally This book shifts the attention from star architects to star architecture arguing that the process of deciding about and implementing relevant architectural and urban projects is not the product of any single actor Star architecture can in fact be better studied and understood as assembled by multiple actors and in its relationship with urban transformation In its 18 chapters the book presents a multidisciplinary collection of expert contributions in the fields of urban planning architecture media studies urban economics geography and sociology consistently brought together for the first time to deal with this topic Through a vast array of case studies and analytical techniques touching over 20 cities in Europe the book shows the positive and more problematic impacts of star architecture with reference to the preservation of built heritage tourism and media The book will be of interest to architects sociologists urban planners and public administrators Folio 06 shi qiao Li, Belinda Ho, 2005
