Conversations With Leslie Marmon Silko Conversations With Leslie Marmon Silko:

Conversations with Leslie Marmon Silko Leslie Marmon Silko, 2000 Contains sixteen interviews that provide insight into the thinking and writing of twentieth century Native American author Leslie Marmon Silko Leslie Marmon Silko Louise K. Barnett, James L. Thorson, 1999 An exciting collection of new essays on the work of the outstanding American Indian woman writer Conversations with LeAnne Howe Kirstin L. Squint, 2022-02-04 Conversations with LeAnne Howe is the first collection of interviews with the groundbreaking Choctaw author whose genre bending works take place in the US Southeast Oklahoma and beyond our national borders to bring Native American characters and themes to the global stage Best known for her American Book Award winning novel Shell Shaker 2001 LeAnne Howe b 1951 is also a poet playwright screenwriter essayist theorist and humorist She has held numerous honors including a Fulbright Distinguished Scholarship in Amman Jordan from 2010 to 2011 and she was the recipient of the Modern Language Association's first Prize for Studies in Native American Literatures Cultures and Languages for her travelogue Choctalking on Other Realities 2013 Spanning the period from 2002 to 2020 the interviews in this collection delve deeply into Howe's poetics her innovative critical methodology of tribalography her personal history and her position on subjects ranging from the Lone Ranger to Native American mascots Two previously unpublished interviews An American in New York LeAnne Howe 2019 and Genre Sliding on Stage with LeAnne Howe 2020 explore unexamined areas of her personal history and how it impacted her creative work including childhood trauma and her incubation as a playwright in the 1980s These conversations along with 2019's Occult Poetry Radio interview also give important insights on the background of Howe's newest critically acclaimed work Savage Conversations 2019 about Mary Todd Lincoln's hallucination of a Savage Indian during her time in Bellevue Place sanitarium Taken as a whole Conversations with LeAnne Howe showcases the development and continued impact of one of the most important Indigenous American writers of the twenty first century Silko Brewster E. Fitz, 2005-07-30 Leslie Marmon Silko a Laguna Pueblo Native American was raised in a culture with a strong oral tradition She also grew up in a household where books were cherished and reading at the dinner table was not deemed rude but instead was encouraged In his examination of Silko's literature the author explores the complex dynamic between the spoken story and the written word revealing how it carries over from Silko's upbringing and plays out in her writings Focusing on critical essays by and interviews with Silko the author argues that Silko's storytelling is informed not so much by oral Laguna culture as by the Marmon family tradition in which writing was internalized long before her birth In Silko's writings this conflicted desire between the oral and the written evolves into a yearning for a paradoxical written orality that would conceivably function as a perfect nonmediated language The critical focus on orality in Native literature has kept the equally important tradition of Native writing from being honored By offering close readings of stories from Storyteller and Ceremony as well as passages from Almanac of the Dead and Gardens in the Dunes the author shows how Silko weaves the oral and the written the spirit and the flesh into a new vision of Pueblo culture As he asserts Silko s written word rather than obscuring or destroying her culture s oral tradition serves instead to sharpen it

Drug Wars Curtis Marez,2004 Inaugurated in 1984 America s War on Drugs is just the most recent skirmish in a standoff between global drug trafficking and state power From Britain s nineteenth century Opium Wars in China to the activities of Colombia s drug cartels and their suppression by U S backed military forces today conflicts over narcotics have justified imperial expansion global capitalism and state violence even as they have also fueled the movement of goods and labor around the world In Drug Wars cultural critic Curtis Marez examines two hundred years of writings graphic works films and music that both demonize and celebrate the commerce in cocaine marijuana and opium providing a bold interdisciplinary exploration of drugs in the popular imagination Ranging from the writings of Sigmund Freud to pro drug lord Mexican popular music gangsta rap and Brian De Palma s 1983 epic Scarface Drug Wars moves from the representations and realities of the Opium Wars to the long history of drug and immigration enforcement on the U S Mexican border and to cocaine use and interdiction in South America Middle Europe and among American Indians Throughout Marez juxtaposes official drug policy and propaganda with subversive images that challenge and sometimes even taunt government and legal efforts As Marez shows despite the state s best efforts to use the media to obscure the hypocrisies and failures of its drug policies be they lurid descriptions of Chinese opium dens in the English popular press or Nancy Reagan s Just Say No campaign marginalized groups have consistently opposed the expansion of state power that drug traffic has historically supported Curtis Marez is assistant professor of critical studies at the University of Southern California School of Cinema Television

Apocalypse Revisited: A Critical Study on End Times Melis Mulazimoglu Erkal,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Mankind s fascination with the Apocalypse is not new Starting from the Hindu notions of Kali Yuga to 2012 Phenomenon Apocalypse has been a part of our lives in the form of a cultural formation natural threat fictional entity ideological construct political fear or catastrophic end Apocalyptic discourses underline how one culture perceives and reflects pain trauma loss and fear as well as indicating the ability to face and get ready for disaster This interdisciplinary and academic study aims to discuss the end of the world in multiple contexts where the popularity of apocalypse always reigns In the scope of this work readers will see the multi dimensional nature of the Apocalypse referring more to progress rather than end or beginning an in between situation a becoming a formation local yet global phenomenon a product of fantasy plus a constructed reality both an object of consumption and life consuming mechanism an ideological presence in the absence of larger meta narratives

Emerson and Environmental Ethics Susan Dunston,2018-09-15 At the core of Emerson s philosophy is his view as a naturalist that we are made of the same atoms as the world is In counterpoint to this identity he noted the fluid evolution and diversity of combinations and configurations of those atoms Thus he argued our relation and connection to the world are not occasional or recreational but everywhere and always and also reciprocal ongoing and creative He declared he would be a naturalist which for him meant being a knowledgeable lover of nature Emerson's famous insistence on an original relation to the universe centered on morally creative engagement with the environment It took the form of a nature literacy that has become central to contemporary environmental ethics The essential argument of this book is that Emerson's integrated philosophy of nature ethics and creativity is a powerful prototype for a diverse range of contemporary environmental ethics After describing Emerson's own environmental literacy and ethical aesthetic and creative practices of relating to the natural world Dunston delineates a web of environmental ethics that connects Emerson to contemporary eco feminism living systems theory Native American science Asian philosophy and environmental activism

Encyclopaedism and Totality in Contemporary Fiction Kiron Ward, 2025-01-09 Taking as key examples work by Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko Roberto Bolaño and Karen Tei Yamashita this book looks at engagements with encyclopaedic thought and practice in contemporary fiction Chapters provide important new insights into the new ways that authors approach reclaim and use totality as a method for approaching the contemporary rather than an object to be represented In this we find some of the most radical and challenging attempts in recent fiction to reimagine our world on the back of a contested history and in the face of an unstable future Where major studies of literary encyclopaedism have historically tended to draw from the canon this book looks to move beyond this tradition and pays particular attention to work from Indigenous Asian American and Latin American contexts In doing so it looks to address the challenges of reading world literature in the contemporary

Writing Between Cultures Holly E. Martin, 2011-10-14 Hybrid narrative forms are used frequently by authors exploring or living in multicultural societies as a method of reflecting multicultural lives This timely book examines this rhetorical strategy which permits an author to bridge cultures via literary technique Strategies covered include multilingualism magical realism ironic humor the use of mythological figures from the characters heritage cultures and the presentation of different perspectives on landscapes and other spaces as related to ethnicity By investigating elements of ethnic literature comparatively this book reaches beyond the boundaries of any one ethnic group a vital quality in today's world
