Convicted Survivors Suny Series In Women Crime And Criminology:

Convicted Survivors Elizabeth Dermody Leonard, 2012-02-01 When a woman survives a deadly assault by her male abuser by using lethal self defense she often faces a punitive criminal justice system one that largely failed to respond to her earlier calls for help In this book Elizabeth Dermody Leonard examines the lives and experiences of more than forty women in California who are serving lengthy prison sentences for killing their male abusers She contrasts them with other women prisoners in the state and finds substantial differences Leonard s in depth interviews reveal that the women are slow to identify themselves as battered women and continue to minimize the violence done to them make numerous and varied attempts to end abusive relationships and are systematically failed by the systems they look to for help While in jail these women receive liberal dosages of psychotropic drugs damaging their ability to aid in their self defense Moreover trials and plea bargains feature little or no evidence of the severe intimate abuse inflicted upon them Despite a clear lack of criminal or violent histories the majority of women found guilty of the death of abusive men receive first or second degree murder convictions and serve long harsh sentences Leonard concludes the book with a discussion of policy implications and recommendations arising from this research Can't Catch a Break Prof. Susan Starr Sered, Prof. Maureen

Norton-Hawk, 2014-09-12 Based on five years of fieldwork in Boston Can t Catch a Break documents the day to day lives of forty women as they struggle to survive sexual abuse violent communities ineffective social and therapeutic programs discriminatory local and federal policies criminalization incarceration and a broad cultural consensus that views suffering as a consequence of personal flaws and bad choices Combining hard hitting policy analysis with an intimate account of how marginalized women navigate an unforgiving world Susan Sered and Maureen Norton Hawk shine new light on the deep and complex connections between suffering and social inequality As an additional teaching tool instructors can find updates about the women in Can t Catch a Break on Susan s blog at <http://susan-sered.name/blog/category/cant-catch-a-break>
