Confessions Of A Terrorist A Novel:

Confessions of a Terrorist (The Declassified Document) Richard Jackson, 2015-06-11 P Who is the real terrorist in this room M What re you saying In a claustrophobic concrete cell two men face each other across a bare table One is a wanted terrorist the other a British intelligence officer But this is no ordinary interrogation and as they talk deep into the night and violent secrets are revealed the line between interrogator and confessor begins inextricably to blur Who then is the real terrorist And will they pay for their guilt in blood Confessions of a Terrorist Richard Jackson, 2014 In a claustrophobic concrete cell two men face each other across a bare table One is a wanted terrorist the other a British intelligence officer But this is no ordinary interrogation and as they talk deep into the night and violent secrets are revealed the line between interrogator and confessor begins inextricably to blur Who then is the real terrorist And will they pay for their guilt in blood

Neoliberalism and Terror Charlotte Heath-Kelly, Christopher Baker-Beall, Lee Jarvis, 2017-10-02 Terrorism and neoliberalism are connected in multiple complex and often camouflaged ways This book offers a critical exploration of some of the intersections between the two drawing on a wide range of case studies from the United States United Kingdom Brazil and the European Union Contributors to the book investigate the impact of neoliberal technologies and intellectual paradigms upon contemporary counterterrorism where the neoliberal era frames counter terrorism within an endless war against political uncertainty Others resist the notion that a separation ever existed between neoliberalism and counter terrorism These contributions explore how counterterrorism is already itself an exercise of neoliberalism which practices a form of Class War on Terror Finally other contributors investigate the representation of terrorism within contemporary cultural products such as video games in order to explore the perpetuation of neoliberal and statist agendas In doing all of this the book situates post 9 11 counter terrorism discourse and practice within much needed historical contexts including the evolution of capitalism and the state Neoliberalism and Terror will be of great interest to readers within the fields of International Relations Security Studies Terrorism Studies and beyond This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism The Bloomsbury Introduction to Postmodern Realist Fiction T.V. Reed, 2021-03-25 Postmodern realist fiction uses realism disrupting literary techniques to make interventions into the real social conditions of our time It seeks to capture the complex fragmented nature of contemporary experience while addressing crucial issues like income inequality immigration the climate crisis terrorism ever changing technologies shifting racial sex and gender roles and the rise of new forms of authoritarianism A lucid comprehensive introduction to the genre as well as to a wide variety of voices this book discusses more than forty writers from a diverse range of backgrounds and over several decades with special attention to 21st century novels Writers covered include Kathy Acker Chimamanda Ngozi Adiche Julia Alvarez Sherman Alexie Gloria Anzaldua Margaret Atwood Toni Cade Bambara A S Byatt Octavia Butler Angela Carter Ana Castillo Don DeLillo Junot Diaz Jennifer Egan Awaeki Emezi Mohsin Hamid Jessica Hagedorn Maxine Hong Kingston Ursula K Le Guin Daisy

European Perspectives on John Updike Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2018 From his first book publication in 1958 the American writer John Updike attracted an international readership His books have been translated into twenty three languages and he has always had a strong following in the United Kingdom and in Europe Although Updike died in 2009 interest in his work remains strong among European scholars No recent volume however collects diverse European views on Updike's oeuvre The current book fills that void presenting essays that perceive Updike's renditions of America through the eyes of scholar readers from both Western and Eastern Europe back cover

US Narratives of Nuclear Terrorism Since 9/11 David Seed, 2019-04-06 This study examines the US fiction and related films which makes a series of interventions in the cultural debate over the threat of nuclear terrorism It traces the beginnings of this anxiety from the 1970s which increased during the 1990s after the collapse of the Soviet Union The traumatic events of 9 11 became a major reference point for this fiction which expressed the fear that of a second and worse 9 11 The study examines narratives of conspiracies which are detected and forestalled and of others which lead to the worst of all outcomes nuclear detonations sometimes delivered by suitcase nukes In some of these narratives the very fate of the nation hangs in the balance in the face of nuclear apocalypse The discussion considers cases of attacks by electromagnetic pulse EMP cyberterrorism and even bioterrorism Some of the authors examined are present or former politicians members of the CIA and former president Bill Clinton

Terrorism and Literature Peter C. Herman, 2018-09-13 Terrorism has long been a major shaping force in the world However the meanings of terrorism as a word and as a set of actions are intensely contested This volume explores how literature has dealt with terrorism from the Renaissance to today inviting the reader to make connections between older instances of terrorism and contemporary ones and to see how the various literary treatments of terrorism draw on each other The essays demonstrate that the debates around terrorism only give the fictive imagination more room and that fiction has a great deal to offer in terms of both understanding terrorism and our responses to it Written by historians and literary critics the essays provide essential knowledge to understand terrorism in its full complexity As befitting a global problem this book brings together a truly international group of scholars with representatives from America Scotland Canada New Zealand Italy Israel and other countries

The Oxford Handbook of Terrorism Erica Chenoweth, Richard English, Andreas Gofas, Stathis N. Kalyvas, 2019-03-19 The Oxford Handbook of Terrorism systematically integrates the substantial body of scholarship on terrorism and counterterrorism before and after 9 11 In doing so it introduces scholars and practitioners to state of the art approaches methods and issues in studying and teaching these vital phenomena This Handbook goes further than most existing collections by giving structure and direction to the fast growing but somewhat disjointed field of terrorism studies The volume locates terrorism within the wider spectrum of political violence instead of engaging in the widespread tendency towards treating terrorism as an exceptional act Moreover the volume makes a case for studying terrorism within its socio historical context Finally the volume addresses the critique that the study of terrorism suffers from lack of theory by reviewing and extending the theoretical insights contributed by several fields including political science political economy history sociology anthropology criminology law geography and psychology In doing so the volume showcases the analytical advancements and reflects on the challenges that remain since the emergence of the field in the early 1970s

Critical Discourse Analysis, Critical Discourse Studies and Beyond Theresa Catalano, Linda R. Waugh, 2020-09-28 This book explores the problem oriented interdisciplinary research movement comprised of Critical Discourse Analysis CDA and Critical Discourse Studies CDS for scholars teachers and students from many backgrounds Beginning with a Preface by renowned CDA CDS scholar Ruth Wodak it introduces CDA CDS through examples of what its research looks like delineates various precursors to CDA CDS and important foundational concepts and theories and traces its development from its early years until it became established After the relationship between CDA and CDS is discussed seven commonly cited approaches to CDA CDS are outlined including their connections and differences their origins and development major and associated scholars research focus es and central concepts and distinguishing features After a summary of critiques of CDA CDS and responses by CDA CDS scholars the book provides an overview of its salient connections to other interdisciplinary areas of scholarship such as critical applied linguistics education anthropology ethnography sociolinguistics gender studies queer linguistics pragmatics and ecolinguistics The final chapter describes how scholars use their knowledge of CDA CDS to make a difference in the world

Religion and International Security Lee Marsden, 2019-01-22 Religious violence is on the rise globally Hardly a day passes without news of a vicious attack being carried out in the name of religion Religion can of course bring security to many but its perversion leads to insecurity for all Why is this How and why do so many claim to act on God s behalf to inflict deliberate human suffering In Religion and International Security Lee Marsden explores the return of religion as a major cause of insecurity in the contemporary world He guides readers through the different theoretical perspectives surrounding the study of religion and security arguing that the secular bias that marginalized the role played by religion in recent times must change to reflect the realities of the emerging post secular international order Packed with examples from around the world the book offers a thoughtful and nuanced exploration of religion and security through key themes such as religiously motivated and inspired terrorism and warfare the human security of women and gay people in religiously dominated communities and the capacity for religious communities and leaders to heal conflict through peacebuilding For those who would rather deny a role for religion when considering security the genie is truly out of the bottle This book seeks to understand this phenomenon and how to come to terms with it
