Confirmation Engaging Lutheran Foundations And Practices:

Confirmation Robert L. Conrad, 1999 In this volume nine leading Lutheran scholars examine the theological historical and educational foundations of confirmation ministry in the ELCA Confirmation Engaging Lutheran Foundations and Practices arms leaders with the creativity and innovation to meet the challenges of confirmation ministry This book identifies the key issues and concerns of today's confirmation ministry planners and deepens the educators commitment to teaching the Lutheran faith to people of all ages especially adolescents in a way that is Gospel and grace centered New patterns have emerged in congregational practices of confirmation ministry adolescent research has yielded new insights for teachers several catechetical curricula have been published and ecumenical conversations have progressed and demand attention A new generation of teachers and leaders has arisen and is asking for an in depth look at confirmation today And here it is This book is alive with a vibrancy of excitement about ministry with youth and above all confirmation ministry This is a book that is theoretical and practical paying attention to the variety of contemporary practices in congregations and yet holding a solid continuity with the past heritage of the church It answers questions such as What's happening in congregational confirmation ministry today Why do we have confirmation What is it How might we think about confirmation ministry in our own congregation The spirit of lively energy that permeates the chapters will engage readers in reflecting on their own role in confirmation ministry And if this encourages them to become more deeply involved and reinvigorates them in their teaching and pastoral ministry to youth if it moves them to prayer and to action and to wonder at the confirming grace of God in the lives of the baptized then this book will have done its work Confirmation, 1999

Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life and the Educational Foundation of a Lutheran Ethos Leonard S. Smith, 2011-01-01 Like Leonard Smith's larger study Religion and the Rise of History this essay Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life asserts that Luther's well known at the same time simul or paradoxical way of viewing life does not capture Luther's thought as a whole because it does not represent his deeply incarnational and dynamic mystical and holistic particularizing and historical way of viewing life based on the power of the Word and the Spirit of God either in his own life or in human history Smith contends 1 that the best way to capture Luther's second basic way of thinking and of viewing life is through the connected prepositions connected especially for Lutherans in with and under 2 that this second basic way was based primarily on the Gospel of John and its great Prologue which shows how God is acting creating and redeeming and how Jesus is the Word become flesh and 3 that understanding both of Luther's ways of viewing life is helpful for understanding Lutheran education and a Lutheran ethos since the sixteenth century Since this brief essay is written primarily for a general audience it can easily be used as a text or supplementary reading for a class seminary or group discussion

Shepherding Souls Shawn O. Strout, 2024-07-16 A complete resource for the theology liturgy and practice of the pastoral offices This easy to use resource for clergy and lay liturgical leaders examines baptism confirmation marriage reconciliation of the penitent ministration to the sick and burial offering background and guidance for each liturgy Each chapter begins with brief historical and theological contexts followed by a discussion of pastoral and liturgical issues relevant to each rite Because cultural considerations are often central to the pastoral offices each chapter includes an overview of cultural practices surrounding each liturgy that may be unfamiliar to clergy Taking into account theological and liturgical perspectives from a variety of denominations Shepherding Souls is designed to be useful in any church This trusted resource provides the busy church leader with everything needed to prepare for and administer pastoral offices Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W.

Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism The Ministry of Children's Education

Margaret A. Krych, 2004-01-01 This highly anticipated resource establishes the importance of children s education to the life of today s faith communities A very readable textbook The Ministry of Children s Education presents foundations for education in the faith explores contexts in which contemporary faith is nurtured and suggests practical helps for creating programs that work in congregations Religion and the Rise of History Leonard S. Smith, 2009-04-01 As a historical inquiry and synthesis this intellectual history is the first study to apply the ideal type or model building methodology of Otto Hintze 1861 1940 to Western historical thought or to what R G Collingwood called The Idea of History for it contains succinct and useful models for seeing and teaching classical Christian and modern professional historiography Religion and the Rise of History is also the first work to suggest that in addition to his well known paradoxical simul and or at the same time way of thinking and viewing life Martin Luther also held to a way that was deeply incarnational dynamic and or in with and under This dual vision and a Lutheran ethos strongly influenced Leibniz Hamann and Herder and was therefore a matter of considerable significance for the rise of a distinctly modern form of historical consciousness commonly called historicism in

Protestant Germany Smith's essay suggests a new time period for the formative age of modern German thought culture and education The Cultural Revolution in Germany This age began in the early 1760s and culminated in 1810 with the founding of the University of Berlin the first fully modern and modernizing university This university first became the recognized center for the study of history however through the work of Leopold von Ranke 1795 1886 Here the story shows how a young Ranke derived his individualizing way of thinking and viewing life mainly from Luther how his life work is the best example in Western literature of the rise of history from a calling to a profession and how the three way discussion between Troeltsch Meinecke and Hintze concerning the nature of modern historical thought was of central importance for the reorientation of Western social historical thought in the twentieth century

The A to Z of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Duane Howard Larson, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2007 On October 31 1517 the German Priest Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses challenging the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church on the door of the church in Wittenberg It is widely held that this act triggered the large exodus from the Catholic Church which became known as the Protestant Reformation Lutheranism one of the many Protestant movements that were spawned as a result of this revolution is largely founded on the teachings and writings of Martin Luther The A to Z of Lutheranism sheds light on the many and varied concerns of the church from its earliest manifestations in the 16th century to recent decisions at the turn of the 20th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction a bibliography an appendix and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons major events and institutions the theology and ethics significant concepts and the broader social cultural and economic impact of Lutheranism and its worldwide expansion
