History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel C. Snider, 2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 1, Genocide in the Ancient, Medieval and

Premodern Worlds Ben Kiernan, T. M. Lemos, Tristan S. Taylor, 2023-05-04 Volume I offers an introductory survey of the phenomenon of genocide The first five chapters examine its major recurring themes while the further nineteen are specific case studies The combination of thematic and empirical approaches illuminates the origins and long history of genocide its causes consistent characteristics and the connections linking various cases from earliest times to the early modern era The themes examined include the roles of racism the state religion gender prejudice famine and climate crises as well as the role of human decision making in the causation of genocide The case studies cover events on four continents ranging from prehistoric Europe and the Andes to ancient Israel Mesopotamia the early Greek world Rome Carthage and the Mediterranean It continues with the Norman Conquest of England s North the Crusades the Mongol Conquests medieval India and Viet Nam and a panoramic study of pre modern China as well as the Spanish conquests of the Canary Islands the Caribbean and Mexico The Indian Ocean in World History Edward A. Alpers,2014 The Indian Ocean in World History explores the cultural exchanges that took place in this region from ancient to modern times Culture Martin Puchner,2023-02-07 A writer of genius William Dalrymple Can anyone really own a culture This magnificent account argues that the story of global civilisations is one of mixing sharing and borrowing It shows how art forms have crisscrossed continents over centuries to produce masterpieces From Nefertiti s lost city and the Islamic Golden Age to twentieth century Nigerian theatre and Modernist poetry Martin Puchner explores how contact between different peoples has driven artistic innovation in every era whilst cultural policing and purism have more often undermined the very societies they tried to protect Travelling through Classical Greece Ashoka s India Tang dynasty China and many other epochs this triumphal new history reveals the crossing points which have not only inspired the humanities but which have made us human
