Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation Beyond Church Walls Dr. Richard

Rouse, 2016-05-19 Pastoral care has been traditionally understood as pastoral acts administered to individuals or small groups by an ordained or lay religious practitioner As congregations in the twenty first century begin to reclaim the missional nature of church this view must be broadened to include care and concern for the needs of the larger community A missional perspective of pastoral care embraces the notion that all of Gods people not just trained professionals are called to partner in the healing and redemption of the world In Beyond Church Walls Rick Rouse sets out to articulate precisely what such an approach to pastoral care looks like and the substantial impact it can have on congregations and communities A skilled teacher and pastor with deep experience in real communities Rouse leads readers through the changing realities of the twenty first century and to new ways for missional churches to succeed in offering pastoral care for the whole community

Lay Pastoral Care Joretta L. Marshall, Christie Cozad Neuger, 2022-11-01 Care companions in congregations support others at multiple levels They walk with people during challenging life situations including death and grief become prayer partners in moments of need and are present in everyday moments of life Sometimes care relationships arise through informal networks such as Sunday school classes or fellowship groups Other times people are recruited and trained to become part of the caring ministry of a church Lay Pastoral Care A Narrative Approach offers guidance for people across a spectrum of care Using a model grounded in narrative and collaborative theories Joretta L Marshall and Christie Cozad Neuger describe key ideas and practices that inform lay care companioning They also provide comprehensive curricular suggestions for training lay companions Marshall and Neuger build on a commitment to mutual learning deepening spiritual
