Performative Autoethnography of Five Black American Men Stefan Battle, 2023-07-11 In this book Stefan Battle weaves together autoethnographic narrative and ethnographic performance material from his own life and those of four other Black men to show the untold impact of racial trauma on these everyday lives By engaging readers with these experiences stories and pain the book aims to help to stop racial trauma and heal the race based grief of the many Black men who need to speak out against racial injustice United States Battle organizes the book as a performative account of a one day workshop that he might teach to college students or other adults He uses individual activities including an interview with a White woman regarding her relationship to race and racism a staged reading in which five Black men share their stories an audience discussion about race and racism and Battle s performative talk sharing the author s desire for people of all races to self reflect and then talk among themselves about race and racism Battle s powerful book reveals that each Black man s unique story is important and that understanding something of a person s hidden context for processing the traumas of racism can lead to new understanding and healing To this end Battle examines issues such as Black men s mental health and the wider societal systemic racism in the US that provokes tension and harm to the racial victimization of Black men Suitable for students and scholars of qualitative research and autoethnography in the social sciences communication studies education social work and Africana or Black studies this book will also be of interest to anyone seeking to better understand and engage with the Black male experience in the US

Black Male Collegians: Increasing Access, Retention, and Persistence in Higher Education Robert T. Palmer, J. Luke Wood, T. Elon Dancy, Terrell L. Strayhorn, 2014-06-24 Improving college access and success among Black males has garnered tremendous attention Many social scientists have noted that Black men account for only 4.3% of the total enrollment at 4 year postsecondary institutions in the United States the same percentage now as in 1976 Furthermore two thirds of Black men who start college never finish The lack of progress among Black men in higher education has caused researchers practitioners and policymakers to become increasingly focused on ways to increase their access and success Offering recommendations and strategies to help advance success among Black males this monograph provides a comprehensive synthesis and analysis of factors that promote the access retention and persistence of Black men at diverse institutional types e.g. historically Black colleges and universities predominantly White institutions and community colleges It delineates institutional policies programs practices and other factors that encourage the success of Black men in postsecondary education This is the 3rd issue of the 40th volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication

What about The Boys? Wayne Martino, Bob Meyenn, 2001-10-16 How can teachers address the challenge of educating boys for life in the 21st century What aspects of schooling are particularly problematic for boys How do issues of class race and sexuality impact upon boys educational experiences This edited collection brings together leading researchers from Australia United Kingdom and the United States to explore issues of boys schooling and masculinities within the context of the current concern about the education of boys The contributors draw on detailed empirical research to highlight some important issues that are not addressed in public debates about boys in the media Chapter topics include international perspectives on debates about boys teaching boys programs for boys in schools boys and risk taking boys and discipline boys and sexuality Afro American boys indigenous boys in Australian schools boys and reading boys and maths boys dance and sport boys and science girls talk about boys The book will be important and compelling reading for all teachers concerned with the education of boys

Hyper Sexual, Hyper Masculine? Brittany C. Slatton, Kamesha Spates, 2016-05-13 This book provides critical insights into the many often overlooked challenges and societal issues that face contemporary black men focusing in particular on the ways in which governing societal expectations result in internal and external constraints on black male identity formation sexuality and black masculine expression Presenting new interview and auto ethnographic data and drawing on an array of theoretical approaches methodologies Hyper Sexual Hyper Masculine explores the formation of gendered and sexual identity in the lives of black men shedding light on the manner in which these are affected by class and social structure It examines the intersecting oppressions of race gender and class while acknowledging and discussing the extent to which black men's social lives differ as a result of their varying degrees of cumulative disadvantage A wide ranging and empirically grounded exploration of the intersecting roles of race masculinity and sexuality on the lives of black men this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social stratification and intersectionality

Miles Davis, and Jazz as Religion Earnest N. Bracey, 2021-10-01 This book about Miles Davis is more psychologically driven than a straight biography but it does cover his musical career as well his spirituality as a jazz musician Davis rocketed to jazz fame as a trumpeter making a plethora of jazz recordings during his life time and his music kept the jazz world on edge for almost fifty years This book also discusses Davis's religion politics civil rights activism and his personal struggles as a Black man in the United States Miles Davis and Jazz as Religion The Politics of Social Music also shows how Miles Davis made a political statement as he challenged racial stereotypes in jazz or social music Artistically Davis was able to integrate rock jazz classical music rap and blues in his music as he had a passion for changing his social music In this regard Miles Davis's music was important to him intellectually spiritually and psychologically because he wanted to make his musical contributions count

The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology
