Trading Vincent Crow D C J Wardle, 2012-12-27 Vince Crow had heard somewhere that you could trade a piece of useless junk on the internet and within a year of swapping it for better and better things get cool stuff Crow decided that he himself was going to start off as that piece of tat jump from one job to the next indeed he would trade one lifestyle for a new one until he was finally a success Every three months he would have to trade up for an entirely new life a new job a new girl new wheels a new pad new threads until he reached the top The plan of comparing himself to a used item traded over the internet was of course marginally flawed as there is a human factor to all of this which he d overlooked Besides success isn t just about work It s about the car the clothes the house and getting the girl so changing all of that with every new trade upwards is a lot more difficult than swapping an old stereo in the classifieds Crow quickly learns what the price of success really is An education he would never have got if he had gone to college Trading Vincent Crow which is like Bridget Jones Diary for men will appeal to fans of humorous fiction D C J Wardle has been inspired by P G Wodehouse and Gerard Durrell

Comedy of Errors Carol Evans,2015-07-31 This first book takes me from my early days at the Australian Defence Force Academy when considering women to be equal in the forces was relatively new Similarly the Australian Defence Force Academy was still generally a new establishment with the doors opening in 1986 I arrived in 1999 when it was the first year that there was such a high number of females in the intake The years at the Australian Defence Force Academy were unique for a female and in some respects quite challenging These challenges provided the grounding for our future careers This first part takes me from my Australian Defence Force Academy days my introduction to sea life and participation in development of policy for ships and submarine being designed for the embarkment of women my life at sea and future life in intelligence I was to go on to be the senior watch officer and acting operations officer for the Australian Joint Intelligence Centre Watch Floor where I was briefing admirals and generals on a daily basis I also gained some valuable NSW police friends that provided me with unique experiences at a time they were going under corruption review It was a challenging road where I worked alongside clearance divers and submariners experienced sexual abuse and was later rewarded with a representational posting to Hawaii Along my journey I have met some remarkable people and some manipulators that hid behind the uniform It was these very experiences I believe that led to my change in life which can only be described as a comedy of errors with myself ending up in the Middle East basically living on the streets after completing seventeen years in the Royal Australian Navy Intelligence Master of Islamic Studies and Masters of International Relations Nuclear Security and being placed in prison in Austria only to end up working for the Australian government in Australia training corrections staff and prisoners and again facing life on the streets Apparently my studies experiences and skills do not mean anything in Australia

Flightsend Linda Newbery,2010-01-12 Flightsend is Charlie s new home whether she likes it or not Her mother sees it as an end to all that s gone so tragically wrong They had been a proper family Mum her boyfriend Sean and Charlie with a new baby sister on the way But the baby died before she was born and everything changed Gradually Charlie s mother pushed Sean away before resigning from her job and selling the house Charlie is certain that the move to a ramshackle cottage miles from anywhere can only make things worse She couldn't be more wrong For Charlie's mum there's a new business and the fresh start that she knew she needed And for Charlie there's a new job new friends a newly discovered talent for art and new feelings for two very different men It's a summer of beginnings not ends a summer that Charlie will never forget Destination Saigon Walter Mason, 2010 From the crazy heat and colour of Saigon to the quieter splendour of Hanoi Walter Mason gives us a rare joyous and at times hilarious insight into twenty first century Vietnam Seduced by the beauty and charm of its people and the sensuousness of its culture we can almost taste the little coconut cakes cooked over a fire in a smoky Can Tho kitchen or smell the endless supplies of fresh baguettes and croissants just out of city ovens As colourful city cafes and bars make way for visits to out of the way shrines and temples we take an impromptu visit to forbidden fortune tellers and glimpse a little of the Cao Dai religion made famous in Graham Greene's The Quiet American Escaping on impulse to a far flung province a brief imprisonment culminates in an invitation to local wedding celebrations Travelling off the beaten track to far flung villages and lesser known towns we cruise along the Mekong board hopelessly overcrowded local buses or perch perilously on the back of motorbikes Behind the scenes visits to Buddhist monasteries reveal a quieter and more transcendent world beyond the busy day trips of tourists And in the process we begin to see the country through the eyes of its people Learn to Drive in 10 Easy Stages John Wells, 2019-08-03 Learn to Drive in 10 Easy Stages is one of the most well established guides to preparing for and undergoing a driving test in the UK This new edition contains everything that prospective students need to know with both the theory and practical tests covered in this one volume In full colour throughout and with a wealth of new and updated illustrations the guide is designed to be as user friendly as possible and will ensure that readers are well prepared for their driving tests The book includes a unique 10 step programme to help in preparing for the practical test as well as over 600 practice questions to help prepare for the theory test Hi, It's Me Fawn Parker, 2024-09-17 Atwood Gibson Writers Trust Fiction Prize Finalist Globe and Mail Top 100 Best Books of 2024 One of Indigo's Most Anticipated Canadian Books One of the CBC's Canadian Fiction Books to Read in Fall 2024 Governor General's literary Award for Fiction Finalist Women Talking meets Study for Obedience in this stunning depiction of fresh grief by Fawn Parker the Giller Prize longlisted author of What We Both Know Shortly after her mother's death Fawn arrives at the farmhouse While there she will stay in her mother's bedroom in the house that is also occupied by four other women who live by an unusual set of beliefs Wrestling with longstanding compulsive and harmful behaviours as well as severe self doubt Fawn is confronted with the reality of her mother's death It is her responsibility to catalogue the furniture and possessions in the room then sell or dispose of them Instead Fawn becomes fixated on archiving her mother's writing and documents searching for signs and drawing tenuous connections to help her understand more about the enigmatic woman in the pages I am surrounded by mocking evidence of her inhabitancy of this room Quickly it is expiring Today she was alive When the day runs out that will no longer be true Tomorrow I will be able to say that yesterday she was alive at least The next day nothing She will just be dead The fact seems to be at its smallest now growing with time For now she is many things and there are many places left to find her In Hi It s Me Fawn Parker is unafraid to explore the bewildering relationship between the living and the dead Strikingly original provocative and engrossing Hi It s Me takes us into the furthest corners of grief invoking the physicality and painful embodiment of terminal illness with astonishing precision and emotional force This mesmerizing devastating novel asks Why must it be this way

Cheap Driving Lessons: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Cheap Driving Lessons : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Cheap Driving Lessons : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Cheap Driving Lessons : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
