It's Absence, Presently John McGreal, 2016-04-20 It's Silence Soundly It's Nothing Seriously and It's Absence Presently continue The It Series published by Matador since The Book of It 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and audial dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago In their aesthetic form the books are a decentred trilogy united together in a new concept of The Bibliograph All three present this new aesthetic object which transcends the narrow limits of the academic bibliography The alphabetical works also share a tripartite structure and identical length The Bibliograph itself is characterised by its strategic place within each book as a whole as well as by the complex variations in meaning of the dominant motifs nothingness absence and silence which recur throughout the alphabetical entries that constitute the elements of each text It's Nothing Seriously for example addresses the amusing paradox that so much continues to be written today about nothing The aleatory character of the entries in the texts encourage the modern reader to reflect on each theme and to read them in a new way The reader is invited as well to examine their various inter textual relations across given conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical social reproduction Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic, 2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth s wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust

Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka, 2012-10-01 In Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka examines the tensions between the ethical and aesthetic imperatives in literary artistic and philosophical works about the Holocaust in a search for new ways to understand the traumatic past and its impact on the present She engages with the work of leading 20th century philosophers and theorists including Levinas Benjamin Lyotard and Derrida to consider the role of language in the construction and transmission of traumatic memories the relation between self identity and the act of bearing witness and the ethical implications of representing trauma Glowacka s work draws on a wide range of discourses and disciplines bringing into conversation various genres of writing and artistic production It reveals the need to find innovative idioms and new means of engaging with the past and to create alliances between different disciplines and modes of representing the past that transform and transcend existing paradigms of representation

The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub

Keepers of Memory Jennifer Rich, 2019-11-20 Keepers of Memory answers the question of how descendants of Holocaust survivors remember the Holocaust the event that preceded their birth but has shaped their lives Through personal stories and in depth interviews Rich examines the complicated relationship between history truth and memory Keepers of Memory explores topics that include how stories of survival become stories of either empowerment or trauma for the descending generations career choice as a form of commemoration religion and family life Ultimately this work paints a compelling picture of the promises and pitfalls of memory and points to implications for memory and commemoration in the coming generations

Decentering Relational Theory Lewis Aron, Sue Grand, Joyce A. Slochower, 2018-06-13 Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique invites relational theorists to contemplate the influence overlaps and relationship between relational theory and other perspectives Self critique was the focus of De Idealizing Relational Theory Decentering Relational Theory pushes critique in a different direction by explicitly engaging the questions of theoretical and clinical overlap and lack thereof with writers from other psychoanalytic orientations In part this comparison involves critique but in part it does not It addresses issues of influence both bidirectional and unidimensional Our authors took up this challenge in different ways Like our authors in De Idealizing writers who contributed to Decentering were asked to move beyond their own perspective without stereotyping alternate perspectives Instead they seek to expand our understanding of the convergences and divergences between different relational perspectives and those of other theories Whether to locate relational thought in a broader theoretical envelope make links to other theories address critiques leveled at us or push relational thinking forward our contributors thought outside the box The kinds of comparisons they were asked to make were challenging We are grateful to them for having taken up this challenge Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists across the theoretical spectrum
