Michael Brown

Daphnis And Chloe Penguin Classics:

Daphnis and Chloe Longus, 1989-01-26 A tender novel describing eager and inept young love Daphnis and Chloe tells the story of a baby boy and girl who are discovered separately two years apart alone and exposed on a Greek mountainside Taken in by a goatherd and a shepherd respectively and raised near the town of Mytilene they grow to maturity unaware of one another's existence until the mischievous god of love Eros creates in them a sudden overpowering desire for one another A masterpiece among early Greek romances attracting both high praise and moral disapproval this work has proved an enduringly fertile source of inspiration for musicians writers and artists from Henry Fielding to Jean Baptiste Camille Corot and Maurice Ravel Longus transforms familiar themes from the romance genre including pirates dreams and the supernatural into a virtuoso love story that is rich in insight humorous and ironical in its treatment of human sexual experience Daphnis and Chloe: Translated with a Revised Introduction by Paul Turner (Penguin Classics).

, 1989 Penguin Classics Introduction to Daphnis and Chloe by Longus (Penguin Classics) Paul Turner, 1989 The Penguin Classics Book Henry Eliot, 2019-02-21 Shortlisted for Waterstones Book of the Year The Penguin Classics Book is a reader's companion to the largest library of classic literature in the world Spanning 4 000 years from the legends of Ancient Mesopotamia to the poetry of the First World War with Greek tragedies Icelandic sagas Japanese epics and much more in between it encompasses 500 authors and 1 200 books bringing these to life with lively descriptions literary connections and beautiful cover designs Daphnis & Chloe Longus, 1916 Penguin Classics: Catalogue, 2015-02-26 In 1946 E V Rieu's groundbreaking translation of The Odyssey established a cultural legacy that would bring the world's most compelling and influential literature to millions of readers around the globe For over sixty five years Penguin Classics have been making works that were once the sole preserve of academics accessible to everyone this catalogue offers a complete list of all titles in print across the list more than 1 200 books from Aristotle and Austen to Zola and Zamyatin The Penguin Classics though I designed them to give pleasure even more than instruction have been hailed as the greatest educative force of the twentieth century And far be it for me to quarrel with that encomium for there is no one whom they have educated more than myself E V Rieu The Seven Basic Plots Christopher Booker, 2005-11-11 This remarkable and monumental book at last provides a comprehensive answer to the age old riddle of whether there are only a small number of basic stories in the world Using a wealth of examples from ancient myths and folk tales via the plays and novels of great literature to the popular movies and TV soap operas of today it shows that there are seven archetypal themes which recur throughout every kind of storytelling But this is only the prelude to an investigation into how and why we are programmed to imagine stories in these ways and how they relate to the inmost patterns of human psychology Drawing on a vast array of examples from Proust to detective stories from the Marquis de Sade to E T Christopher Booker then leads us through the extraordinary changes in the nature of storytelling over the past 200 years and why so many stories have lost the plot by losing touch with their underlying archetypal purpose Booker analyses why evolution has given us the need to tell stories and illustrates how storytelling has provided a uniquely revealing mirror to mankind's psychological development over the past 5000 years This seminal book opens up in an entirely new way our understanding of the real purpose storytelling plays in our lives and will be a talking point for years to come The Romance between Greece and the East Tim Whitmarsh, Stuart Thomson, 2013-11-14 The contact zones between the Greco Roman world and the Near East represent one of the most exciting and fast moving areas of ancient world studies This new collection of essays by world renowned experts and some new voices in classical Jewish Egyptian Mesopotamian and Persian literature focuses specifically on prose fiction or the ancient novel Twenty chapters either offer fresh readings from an intercultural perspective of familiar texts such as the biblical Esther and Ecclesiastes Xenophon of Ephesus Ephesian Story and Dictys of Crete's Journal or introduce material that may be new to many readers from demotic Egyptian papyri through old Avestan hymns to a Turkic translation of the Life of Aesop The volume also considers issues of methodology and the history of scholarship on the topic A concluding section deals with the question of how narratives patterns and motifs may have come to be transmitted between cultures Expurgating the Classics Bloomsbury Publishing, 2014-06-20 In the first collection to be devoted to this subject a distinguished cast of contributors explores expurgation in both Greek and Latin authors in ancient and modern times The major focus is on the period from the seventeenth to the twentieth century with chapters ranging from early Greek lyric and Aristophanes through Lucretius Horace Martial and Catullus to the expurgation of schoolboy texts the Loeb Classical Library and the Penguin Classics The contributors draw on evidence from the papers of editors and on material in publishing archives The introduction discusses both the different types of expurgation and how it differs from related phenomena such as censorship The Flight of the Angels Alistair Charles Rolls, 2023-11-27 It is a close study of four novels by Boris Vian It aims to show how L'automne, Plein l'herbe rouge and L'arrache-cœur form a unified and coherent tetralogy By establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations An examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which I refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction Each Vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it The sources of this influence which I refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone Thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality
