The Rise and Fall of Paramount Records Scott Blackwood, 2023-03-01 Founded in 1917 Paramount Records incongruously was one of several homegrown record labels of a Wisconsin chair making company The company pinned no outsized hopes on Paramount Its founders knew nothing of the music business and they had arrived at the scheme of producing records only to drive sales of the expensive phonograph cabinets they had recently begun manufacturing Lacking the resources and the interest to compete for top talent Paramount s earliest recordings gained little foothold with the listening public On the threshold of bankruptcy the label embarked on a new business plan selling the music of Black artists to Black audiences It was a wildly successful move with Paramount eventually garnering many of the biggest selling titles in the race records era Inadvertently the label accomplished what others could not making blues jazz and folk music performed by Black artists a popular and profitable genre Paramount featured a deep roster of legendary performers including Louis Armstrong Charley
