Charles Ray: Figure Ground Kelly Baum, Brinda Kumar, Hal Foster, 2022-01-30 This incisive publication explores the formal conceptual political and technical aspects of the work of contemporary American artist Charles Ray For Charles Ray born 1953 sculpture is a way of thinking that informs his work across a wide range of media from gelatin silver prints to porcelain fiberglass wood and steel Spanning the whole of his fifty year career Charles Ray Figure Ground considers the artist's intriguing often unsettling sculptures from both the twentieth and twenty first centuries in relation to his early photographs and performances It also explores his interest in Mark Twain's 1884 novel Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Kelly Baum addresses patterns and patterning in Ray's art foregrounding his engagement with preexisting traditions classicism among them as well as charged issues around race gender and sexuality Brinda Kumar investigates the modalities of touch that run through Ray's work while a reflection by Ray himself and a conversation between the artist and Hal Foster offer further insights into his multifaceted practice

Fail Better Hal Foster, 2025-02-25 From the distinguished art critic and historian vital essays on key artists and critics revealing how they redefined art and criticism over the last six decades Serious art anticipates the future as much as it reflects the present Hal Foster remarked in a 2015 interview By the same token serious art history is driven by the present as much as it is informed by the past In Fail Better Foster an art critic and historian whose influential work spans disciplines and decades brings this peripatetic perspective to contemporary art art criticism art history and his own work over the past 50 years In these 40 texts Foster reviews artists from Richard Hamilton and Jasper Johns to Gerhard Richter and Ed Ruscha considers contemporaries from Louise Lawler and Cindy Sherman to Jeremy Deller and Adam Pendleton and traces the development of criticism since the early 1960s with essays on such influential figures as Susan Sontag and Rosalind Krauss and institutions like Artforum magazine and the Whitney Museum Independent Study Program Taking his title from Beckett try again fail again fail better Foster notes that etymologically an essay is always an attempt more or less failed Critics fail artworks because there can never be a definitive reading art fails its historical moment because it cannot resolve the contradictions that prompt it But in these failures Foster finds historical consciousness and with it the promise of future work future illumination In his reckonings he turns his own long history of criticism to account and succeeds in conveying shifting concepts of art and criticism the work of key artists and critics and the relationships between criticism theory history and politics over the last six decades Autonomy Nicholas Brown,2019-02-28 In Autonomy Nicholas Brown theorizes the historical and theoretical argument for art's autonomy from its acknowledged character as a commodity Refusing the position that the distinction between art and the commodity has collapsed Brown demonstrates how art can in confronting its material determinations suspend the logic of capital by demanding interpretive attention He applies his readings of Marx Hegel Adorno and Jameson to a range of literature photography music television and sculpture from Cindy Sherman's photography and the novels of Ben Lerner and Jennifer Egan to The Wire and the music of the White Stripes He demonstrates that through their attention and commitment to form such artists turn aside the determination posed by the demand of the market thereby defeating the foreclosure of meaning entailed in commodification In so doing he offers a new theory of art that prompts a rethinking of the relationship between art critical theory and capitalism Why Look at Plants? ,2018-11-05 Winner of the 2019

which has exercised such great influence in art history and criticism for nearly sixty years Employing in these moments a conversational tone speaking directly to the reader in his own voice about his own work he reviews the genesis and development of his theories and critical constructs in light of Anri Sala's videos creating a highly productive back and forth between Sala and the contemporary art world on the one hand and Fried's often more historical studies and concepts on the other For readers of Michael Fried the result is not only a stimulating discussion of Sala and the artistic and theoretical tradition in whose light his work can be viewed but also a vital reflection on Fried's own foundational ideas how they came to be and how they are relevant today
