Trading Vincent Crow D C J Wardle, 2012-12-27 Vince Crow had heard somewhere that you could trade a piece of useless junk on the internet and within a year of swapping it for better and better things get cool stuff Crow decided that he himself was going to start off as that piece of tat jump from one job to the next indeed he would trade one lifestyle for a new one until he was finally a success Every three months he would have to trade up for an entirely new life a new job a new girl new wheels a new pad new threads until he reached the top The plan of comparing himself to a used item traded over the internet was of course marginally flawed as there is a human factor to all of this which he d overlooked Besides success isn t just about work It s about the car the clothes the house and getting the girl so changing all of that with every new trade upwards is a lot more difficult than swapping an old stereo in the classifieds Crow quickly learns what the price of success really is An education he would never have got if he had gone to college Trading Vincent Crow which is like Bridget Jones Diary for men will appeal to fans of humorous fiction D C J Wardle has been inspired by P G Wodehouse and Gerard Durrell Comedy of Errors Carol Evans,2015-07-31 This first book takes me from my early days at the Australian Defence Force Academy when considering women to be equal in the forces was relatively new Similarly the Australian Defence Force Academy was still generally a new establishment with the doors opening in 1986 I arrived in 1999 when it was the first year that there was such a high number of females in the intake The years at the Australian Defence Force Academy were unique for a female and in some respects quite challenging These challenges provided the grounding for our future careers This first part takes me from my Australian Defence Force Academy days my introduction to sea life and participation in development of policy for ships and submarine being designed for the embarkment of women my life at sea and future life in intelligence I was to go on to be the senior watch officer and acting operations officer for the Australian Joint Intelligence Centre Watch Floor where I was briefing admirals and generals on a daily basis I also gained some valuable NSW police friends that provided me with unique experiences at a time they were going under corruption review It was a challenging road where I worked alongside clearance divers and submariners experienced sexual abuse and was later rewarded with a representational posting to Hawaii Along my journey I have met some remarkable people and some manipulators that hid behind the uniform It was these very experiences I believe that led to my change in life which can only be described as a comedy of errors with myself ending up in the Middle East basically living on the streets after completing seventeen years in the Royal Australian Navy Intelligence Master of Islamic Studies and Masters of International Relations Nuclear Security and being placed in prison in Austria only to end up working for the Australian government in Australia training corrections staff and prisoners and again facing life on the streets Apparently my studies experiences and skills do not mean anything in Australia Learn to Drive in 10 Easy Stages Margaret Stacey,John Wells,2016-01-03 Learn to Drive is one of the most well established guides to preparing for and undergoing a driving test This new edition contains everything that prospective students need to know with both the theory and practical tests covered in this one volume In full colour throughout and with a wealth of new and updated illustrations the guide is designed to be as user friendly as possible and will ensure that readers are well prepared for their driving tests The book includes a unique 10 step programme to help in preparing for the practical test as well as over 600 practice questions to help prepare for the theory test Flightsend Linda Newbery,2010-01-12 Flightsend is Charlie s new home whether she likes it or not Her mother sees it as an end to all that s gone so tragically wrong They had been a proper family Mum her boyfriend Sean and Charlie with a new baby sister on the way But the baby died before she was born and everything changed Gradually Charlie s mother pushed Sean away before resigning from her job and selling the house Charlie is certain that the move to a ramshackle cottage miles from anywhere can only make things worse She
