Death, Intermediate State, and Rebirth in Tibetan Buddhism

Dbyaṅs-can-dga'-ba'i-blo-gros (A-kya Yoṅs-'dzin.), Lati Rinbochay, Jeffrey Hopkins, 1985 Detailed exposition of how people die the stages of death and the subtle physiological processes attending death and deep meditation Death, Intermediate State and Rebirth in Tibetan Buddhism, 1979 Death, Intermediate State and Rebirth in Tibetan Buddhism Lati & Hopkins Jeffrey Rinbochay, 1985 Death and Reincarnation in Tibetan Buddhism Tanya Zivkovic, 2013-10-08 Contextualising the seemingly esoteric and exotic aspects of Tibetan Buddhist culture within the everyday embodied and sensual sphere of religious praxis this book centres on the social and religious lives of deceased Tibetan Buddhist lamas It explores how posterior forms corpses relics reincarnations and hagiographical representations extend a lama's trajectory of lives and manipulate biological imperatives of birth and death The book looks closely at previously unexamined figures whose history is relevant to a better understanding of how Tibetan culture navigates its own understanding of reincarnation the veneration of relics and different social roles of different types of practitioners It analyses both the minutiae of everyday interrelations between lamas and their devotees specifically noted in ritual performances and the enactment of lived tradition and the sacred hagiographical conventions that underpin local knowledge A phenomenology of Tibetan Buddhist life the book provides an ethnography of the everyday embodiment of Tibetan Buddhism This unusual approach offers a valuable and a genuine new perspective on Tibetan Buddhist culture and is of interest to researchers in the fields of social cultural anthropology and religious Buddhist and Tibetan studies

Tibetan Rituals of Death Margaret Gouin, 2012-09-10

This book describes and analyses the structure and performance of Tibetan Buddhist death rituals and situates that performance within the wider context of Buddhist death practices generally Drawing on a detailed and systematic comparative survey of existing records of Tibetan funerary practices including historical travel accounts anthropological and ethnographic literature Tibetan texts and academic studies it demonstrates that there is no standard form of funeral in Tibetan Buddhism although certain elements are common The structure of the book follows the twin trajectories of benefiting the deceased and protecting survivors in the process it reveals a rich and complex panoply of activities some handled by religious professionals and others by lay persons This information is examined to identify similarities and differences in practices and the degree to which Tibetan Buddhist funeral practices are consistent with the mortuary rituals of other forms of Buddhism A number of elements in these death rites which at first appear to be unique to Tibetan Buddhism may only be Tibetan in their surface
