Dead Subjects Toward A Politics Of Loss In Latino Studies:

Dead Subjects Antonio Viego, 2007-11-01 Examines how Lacanian theory lends itself to a new way of thinking about ethnic racialized subjectivity applying it to notions of Latino a subjectivity and experience in particular The American Optic Mikko Tuhkanen, 2010-07-02 The American Optic charts new territory in the relationship of psychoanalysis to critical race studies Focusing on the work of Richard Wright and Jacques Lacan it explore the political and ethical implications of psychoanalysis for African American and other diasporic African cultural texts Mikko Tuhkanen develops a theory of racialization that recasts the genealogy of the Western concept of racial difference as outlined by critical race theory through the theory of the real which Lacan developed in his later work By engaging a wide array of resources including the work of W E B Du Bois Booker T Washington and Frantz Fanon as well as nineteenth century slave narratives and studies of blackface minstrelsy Tuhkanen not only illuminates the unexpectedly rich connections between Lacanian psychoanalysis and black literary and cultural studies but also demonstrates the ways in which the artistic and political traditions of the African diaspora allow us to reinvent the Lacanian ethics of becoming Ethnographic Refusals, Unruly Latinidades Alex E. Chavéz, Gina M. Pérez, 2022-04 The essays in this collection do not offer simple solutions to histories of colonialism patriarchy and misogyny through which gender binaries and racial hierarches have been imposed and reproduced but rather provide a crucial opportunity for reflection on and continued reimagination of the contours of Latinidad Anxiety and the Contradictions of Culture Stephen Felder, 2024-09-20 Anxiety as not only a feeling of dread but a feeling that we dread is widely considered by both philosophical and psychoanalytic thinkers as an important signal related to our experience of the cultural and intersubjective world Stephen Felder explores the experience of anxiety through the writings of the existentialist phenomenological and psychoanalytic traditions especially Jacques Lacan to make sense out of this dreadful experience Working from Lacan's claim that the structure of anxiety and fantasy are the same Felder shows that anxiety is a signal of the Lacanian Real and thus provides us with a point of view from which to critique the cultural world by clarifying how we experience ourselves and others The chapters examine the implications of this insight for how we think about the visual field sex race consumerism and what Stuart Hall called the contradictions of culture in our attempts to live more vibrant lives and create more emancipatory practices in the twenty first century Lacan and Race Sheldon George, Derek Hook, 2021-07-08 This edited volume draws upon Lacanian psychoanalytic theory to examine the conscious and unconscious forces underlying race as a social formation conceptualizing race racial identity and racism in ways that go beyond traditional modes of psychoanalytic thought Featuring contributions by Lacanian scholars from diverse geographical and disciplinary contexts chapters span a wide breadth of topics including white nationalism and contemporary debates over confederate monuments emergent theories of race rooted in Afropessimism and postcolonialism analyses of racism in apartheid and American slavery clinical reflections on Latinx and other racialized patients and applications of Lacan's concepts of the lamella drive and sexuation to processes of racialization The collection both reorients readers understandings of race through its deployment of Lacanian theory and redefines the Lacanian subject through its theorizing of subjectivity in relation to race racism and racial identification Lacan and Race will be a definitive text for psychoanalytic theorists and contemporary scholars of race appealing to readers across the fields of psychology cultural studies humanities politics and sociology The Sense of Brown José Esteban Muñoz, 2020-08-24 The Sense of Brown is Jos Esteban Mu oz s treatise on brownness and being as well as his most direct address to queer Latinx studies In this book which he was completing at the time of his death Mu oz examines the work of playwrights Ricardo Bracho and Nilo Cruz artists Nao Bustamante Isaac Julien and Tania Bruguera and singer Jos Feliciano among others arguing for a sense of brownness that is not fixed within the racial and national contours of Latinidad This sense of brown is not about the individualized brown subject rather it demonstrates that for brown peoples being exists within what Mu oz calls the brown commons a lifeworld queer ecology and form of collectivity In analyzing minoritarian affect ethnicity as a structure of feeling and brown feelings as they emerge in through and beside art and performance Mu oz illustrates how the sense of brown serves as the basis for other ways of knowing and being in the world

Queer Traversals Chris Coffman, 2022-01-27 Working at the intersection of psychoanalytic queer and transgender theories this book argues for the need to read Lacanian psychoanalysis through a queer and trans positive framework In so doing it challenges the dimensions of fantasy at play in efforts to insist on the continued validity of the binary gender system Targeting the Lacanian concept of sexual difference that desire is structured through the difference between masculine and feminine it argues that this idea is not transhistorical as orthodox Lacanians claim but rather a historically contingent fantasy As such it argues that psychoanalytic queer theorists need to go beyond this fantasy to register truly the full range of sexualities and modes of embodiment Examining texts as diverse as films such as Hedwig and the Angry Inch and literary texts such as Paul takes the Form of a Mortal Girl the book enables a queer and trans inclusive model of theorizing subjectivity in psychoanalysis psychosocial studies and cultural studies Theorizing Native Studies Audra

Simpson, 2014-05-07 This important collection makes a compelling argument for the importance of theory in Native studies Within the field there has been understandable suspicion of theory stemming both from concerns about urgent political issues needing to take precedence over theoretical speculations and from hostility toward theory as an inherently Western imperialist epistemology The editors of Theorizing Native Studies take these concerns as the ground for recasting theoretical endeavors as attempts to identify the larger institutional and political structures that enable racism inequities and the displacement of indigenous peoples They emphasize the need for Native people to be recognized as legitimate theorists and for the theoretical work happening outside the academy in Native activist groups and communities to be acknowledged Many of the essays demonstrate how Native studies can productively engage with others seeking to dismantle and decolonize the settler state including scholars putting theory to use in critical ethnic studies gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial studies Taken together the essays demonstrate how theory can serve as a decolonizing practice Contributors Christopher Bracken Glen Coulthard Mishuana Goeman Dian Million Scott Morgensen Robert Nichols Vera Palmer Mark Rifkin Audra Simpson Andrea Smith Teresia Teaiwa     Black Genders and Sexualities S. McGlotten,D. Davis,2012-12-06 Cutting across the humanities and social sciences and situated in sites across the black diaspora the work in this book collectively challenges notions that we are living in a post racial age and instead argue for the specificity of black cultural experiences as shaped by gender and sex     Matters of Inscription Christina A. León,2024-08-13 Matters of Inscription Reading Figures of Latinidad argues that Latinx inscriptions require us to read at the edge of materiality and semiosis charting a nimble method for reading various forms of Latinx marks and even the word Latinx across art performance poetry plays and fiction
