Death, Dying, and Social Differences David Oliviere, Barbara Monroe, Sheila Payne, 2011-09-15 This book examines access to specialist palliative care among different groups in society and the ways of working with difference within such services

Death, Dying, and Social Differences David Oliviere, Barbara Monroe, Sheila Payne, 2011-09-15 Society has become increasingly diverse multi cultural multi faith and wide ranging in family structures The wealthier are healthier and social inequalities are more pronounced Respecting and working with the range of differences among service users families and communities in health and social care with ill dying and bereaved people is a neglected area in the literature As the principles of palliative and end of life care increasingly permeate the mainstream of health and social care services it is important that professionals are sensitive and respond to the differing needs of individuals from diverse socio economic backgrounds ethnicities beliefs abilities and sexual orientations as well as to the different contexts and social environments in which people live and die This book explores what underpins inequality disadvantage and injustice in access to good end of life care Increasingly clinicians policy planners and academics are concerned about inequity in service provision Internationally there is an increasing focus and sense of urgency both on delivering good care in all settings regardless of diagnosis and on better meeting the needs of vulnerable and disadvantaged groups National initiatives emphasise the importance of resolving disparities in care and harnessing empowered user voices to drive change This newly expanded fully revised second edition with 11 new chapters provides a comprehensive analysis of discrimination difference and disadvantage in end of life care and offers practical guidance for all who seek to support the equitable provision of good end of life care

Death and Social Policy in Challenging Times Kate Woodthorpe, Liam Foster, 2016-04-08 The study of death has the capacity to bring together a range of policy areas Yet death is often overlooked within policy debates in the UK and beyond and within gerontology Bringing together a range of scholars engaged in policy associated with death this collection provides a holistic account of how death factors in social policy Within this issues covered include inheritance palliative care euthanasia funeral costs bereavement support marginalised deaths and disposal practices At the heart of the book the volume recognises that the issues identified are likely to intensify and expand over the next twenty years as death rates continue to rise

Contemporary Social Work Practice: A Handbook For Students Teater, Barbra, 2014-04-01 An introduction to the diverse settings of social work detailing the relevant policy context methods and approaches

Theory & Practice in Clinical Social Work Jerrold R. Brandell, 2010-02-16 Today s clinical social workers face a spectrum of social issues and problems of a scope and severity hardly imagined just a few years ago and an ever widening domain of responsibility to overcome them Theory and Practice in Clinical Social Work is the authoritative handbook for social work clinicians and graduate social work students that keeps pace with rapid social changes and presents carefully devised methods models and techniques for responding to the needs of an increasingly diverse clientele Following an overview of the principal frameworks for clinical practice including systems theory behavioral and cognitive theories psychoanalytic theory and neurobiological theory the book goes on to present the major social crises problems and new populations the social work clinician confronts each day Theory and Practice in Clinical Social Work includes 29 original chapters many with carefully crafted and detailed clinical illustrations by leading social work scholars and master clinicians who represent the widest variety of clinical orientations and specializations Collectively these leading authors have treated nearly every conceivable clinical population in virtually every practice context using a full array of treatment approaches and modalities Included in this volume are chapters on practice with adults and children clinical social work with adolescents family therapy and children s treatment groups other chapters focus on social work with communities affected by disasters and terrorism clinical case management cross cultural clinical practice psychopharmacology practice with older adults and mourning and loss The extraordinary breadth of coverage will make this book an essential source of information for students in advanced practice courses and practicing social workers alike

Principles and Practice of Palliative Care and Supportive Oncology Ann M. Berger, John L. Shuster, Jr., Jamie H. Von Roenn, 2012-12-03 Unlike other textbooks on this subject which are more focused on end of life the 4th edition of Principles and Practice of Palliative Care and Supportive Oncology focuses on supportive oncology In fact the goal of this textbook is to provide a source of both help and inspiration to all those who care for patients with cancer Written in a more reader friendly format this textbook not only offers authoritative and up to date reviews of research and clinical care best practices but also practical clinical applications to help readers put everything they learn to use

The Social Construction of Death Leen Van Brussel, Nico Carpentier, 2014-07-31 Chapter 12 of this book is open access under a CC BY license Well established scholars from a variety of disciplines including sociology anthropology media and cultural studies and political sciences use the social construction of death and dying to analyse a wide variety of meaning making practices in societal fields such as ethics politics media medicine and family

Geographies, Mobilities, and Rhythms over the Life-Course Elaine Stratford, 2014-11-20 By thinking in terms of the geographies of mobilities we are better able to understand the central importance of movements rhythms and shifting emplacements over the life course This innovative book represents research from a new and flourishing multidisciplinary field that includes among other things studies on smart cities infrastructures and networks mobile technologies for automated highways or locative media mobility justice and rights to stay or enter or reside These activities cadences and changing attachments to place have profound effects first upon how we conduct or govern ourselves and each other via many social institutions and second upon how we constitute the spaces in and through which our lives are experienced This scholarship also has clear connections to numerous aspects of social and spatial policy and planning

Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine Geoffrey W. C. Hanks, 2011-07-21 Emphasising the multi disciplinary nature of palliative care the fourth edition of this text also looks at the individual professional roles that contribute to the best quality palliative care
