since the publication of the author's last book The Beauty and the Sorrow which similarly looked at the First World War have we had such a mesmerizing work of history Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1997 Blazing Star, Setting Sun Jeffrey Cox, 2020-06-25 From popular Pacific Theatre expert Jeffrey R Cox comes this insightful new history of the critical Guadalcanal and Solomons campaign at the height of World War II Cox's previous book Morning Star Rising had found the US Navy at its absolute nadir and the fate of the Enterprise the last operational US aircraft carrier at this point in the war unknown This second volume completes the history of this crucial campaign combining detailed research with a novelist's flair for the dramatic to reveal exactly how despite missteps and misfortunes the tide of war finally turned By the end of February 1944 thanks to hard fought and costly American victories in the first and second naval battles of Guadalcanal the battle of Empress Augusta Bay and the battle of Cape St George the Japanese would no longer hold the materiel or skilled manpower advantage From this point on although the war was still a long way from being won the American star was unquestionably on the ascendant slowly but surely edging Japanese imperialism towards its sunset Jeffrey Cox's analysis and attention to detail of even the smallest events are second to none But what truly sets this book apart is how he combines this microscopic attention to detail often unearthing new facts along the way with an engaging style that transports the reader to the heart of the story bringing the events on the deep blue of the Pacific vividly to life The United States Marine Corps in Books and the Performing Arts Richard L. Hemenez, 2001 This enormous annotated bibliography of the Marine Corps details fiction nonfiction stage poetry music movie and television references to the Marine Corps It covers over 2 500 books 500 plus Hollywood films 80 made for television movies 100 fictional television programs articles parts of books dissertations chronologies dictionaries and oral histories Beginning with an introduction that focuses on the history of the Marine Corps this work serves as research into such subjects as duty stations ships posts heroes and their heroics uniforms boot camp and equipment Listed in the film section are over 100 former Marines who are film and television actors Reflecting the comprehensiveness of the book there are over 15 000 subject headings totaling over 25 000 indexed items The researcher and the research librarian will appreciate the depth and the breadth of the book Princeton Alumni Weekly Jesse Lynch Williams, Edwin Mark Norris, 1996 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1996-06
