Thinking Through New Literacies for Primary and Early Years Jayne Metcalfe, Debbie Simpson, Ian Todd, Mike Toyn, 2013-06-17 Thinking Through New Literacies for Primary and Early Years is an accessible text that encourages readers to consider deeply what is meant by literacy today. It explores the many different ways in which teachers and children develop their own literacy. Specifically written for education students in the later years of their course, the text draws on research and practice to explore the challenges and opportunities involved while helping to develop the reader's own critical thinking skills. The book begins by asking what's new about new literacies and goes on to explore some technological innovations designed to support the emergent reader and writer. It considers verbal literacy (speaking and listening) and visual literacy. Readers are encouraged to think through the issues surrounding inclusion and the legal and ethical issues raised by this post-typographic age. Throughout, practical guidance runs alongside structured critical thinking exercises to help the reader reflect on both theory and practice. About the Thinking Through Education Series: Thinking Through Education is a series of texts designed and written specifically for those education students entering the second or final phase of their degree course. Structured around sets of specific skills, each chapter uses critical thinking and reflective exercises to develop greater subject knowledge and critical awareness. Each book contains links to the Teachers' Standards, providing students with a clear transition from study to practice. Jayne Metcalfe is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria. Jayne is involved in the safety training of student teachers. Debbie Simpson is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria. She is currently the acting Programme Leader for the Primary PGCE course. Ian Todd is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria with a specialism in English and an interest in the teaching of ICT. Mike Toyn is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria where he also coordinates the teaching of primary ICT.

St. Dale Sharyn McCrumb, 2006-03-01 The Dale Earnhardt Memorial Pilgrimage is the last trip Judge Bekasu Holifield would have chosen for her vacation. But this year it's her sister Justine's turn to make their plans, and soon Bekasu's boarding a silver cruise bus for a tour of Southern stock car speedways with Justine, their cousin Cayle, and a group of strangers, all of whose lives have somehow been touched by the legendary racer they never met. For Shane McKee, the tour is a chance to get married at the speedway with his hero there in spirit. New York stockbroker Terence Palmer has made the trip to honor his only link with the father he never knew: Rev. Bill Knight, whose hobby is medieval pilgrimages. He agrees to chaperone a dying child and finds himself on a strangely familiar journey of faith and devotion. Bekasu begins connecting with her fellow travelers in unexpected ways. But she's not the only one. As the bus rolls down an uncertain road, prayers will be answered, secrets will be revealed, bonds will be forged, and no one will leave this journey of self-discovery quite the same. One of McCrumb's finer achievements. Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News. A wild ride. Sharyn McCrumb has done it again. Ward Burton, winner of the Daytona 500.

Debates in Primary Education Virginia

Bower,2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

Talking to My Hand Arthur Typermass,2008-03 New York City native Arthur G Typermass shines along with his outrageous cast of characters in a collection of seven short stories laced with wit wisdom and misadventures When the future of a beloved Florida zoo hangs in the balance a surreptitious group of supporters devises a plan with far reaching consequences Sometimes it is the seemingly quietest factions that carry the loudest most convincing voices A desperate executive on the run from himself embarks upon a frantic odyssey and into a web of his own creation Santa Claus gives serious consideration to selling his toy business and retiring After the president of the United States dies in a freakish manner one woman is awarded the final parking space in the country The award turns out to be a dubious honor In the 1950s a summer intern at a New York City advertising agency learns that his input at the firm is more valuable than what he is initially told Talking to My Hand is a collection of stories full of laughter and poignancy that touches on many intriguing human experiences Enjoy the antics of larger than life characters pushed to their limits by a series of scandalous events

The Road Back to Sweetgrass Linda LeGarde Grover,2014-09-01 Set in northern Minnesota The Road Back to Sweetgrass follows Dale Ann Theresa and Margie a trio of American Indian women from the 1970s to the present observing their coming of age and the intersection of their lives as they navigate love economic hardship loss and changing family dynamics on the fictional Mozhay Point reservation As young women all three leave their homes Margie and Theresa go to Duluth for college and work there Theresa gets to know a handsome Indian boy Michael Washington who invites her home to the Sweetgrass land allotment to meet his father Zho Wash who lives in the original allotment cabin When Margie accompanies her complicated relationships are set into motion and tensions over real Indian ness emerge Dale Ann Margie and Theresa find themselves pulled back again and again to the Sweetgrass allotment a silent but ever present entity in the book sweetgrass itself is a plant used in the Ojibwe ceremonial odissimaa bag containing a newborn baby s umbilical cord In a powerful final chapter Zho Wash tells the story of the first days of the allotment when the Wazhushkag or Muskrat family became transformed into the Washingtons by the pen of a federal Indian agent This sense of place and home is both tangible and spiritual and Linda LeGarde Grover skillfully connects it with the experience of Native women who came of age during the days of the federal termination policy and the struggle for tribal self determination The Road Back to Sweetgrass is a novel that that moves between past and present the Native and the non Native history and myth and tradition and survival as the people of Mozhay Point navigate traumatic historical events and federal Indian policies while looking ahead to future generations and the continuation of the Anishinaabe people

California Dreamers Mark Abramson,2012 The sixth book in Abramson s popular Beach Reading mystery series set in San Francisco Tim Snow is recruited along with other HIV patients for an experiment with Neutriva an AIDS drug with the peculiar side effects of enhancing dreams and expanding latent psychic abilities But is something sinister going on with these trials

Parasites and Pathogens N.E. Beckage,2012-12-06 When Nancy Beckage and I first met in Lynn Riddiford s laboratory at the University of Washington in the mid 1970s the fields of parasitology behavior and endocrinology were thriving and far flung disciplines in no serious danger of intersecting There were rumors that they might have some common ground Behavioural Aspects of Parasite Transmission Canning and Wright 1972 had just emerged with exciting news not only of the way parasites themselves behave but also of Machiavellian worms that caused intermediate hosts to shift fundamental responses to light and disturbance becoming in the process more vulnerable to predation by the next host Holmes and Bethel 1972 Meanwhile biologists such as Miriam Rothschild see Dedication G B Solomon 1969 and Lynn Riddiford herself 1975 had suggested that the endocrinological rami of parasitism might be subtle and pervasive In general however para fications sites were viewed as aberrant organisms perhaps good for a few just so stories prior to turning our attention once again to real animals In the decade that followed Pauline Lawrence 1986a b Davy Jones Jones et al 1986 Nancy Beckage Beckage 1985 Beckage and Templeton 1986 and others including many in this volume left no doubt that the host parasite combination in insect systems was physiologically distinct from its unparasitized counterpart in ways that went beyond gross pathology
