Community Gardening Ellen Kirby, Elizabeth Peters, 2008 This guide to community gardening uses case studies to show how to produce safe eco friendly food bring neighbors together offer science lessons for children and give participants the satisfaction that comes with making things grow Community Gardening as Social Action Claire Nettle, 2016-05-23 There has been a resurgence of community gardening over the past decade with a wide range of actors seeking to get involved from health agencies aiming to increase fruit and vegetable consumption to radical social movements searching for symbols of non capitalist ways of relating and occupying space Community gardens have become a focal point for local activism in which people are working to contribute to food security question the erosion of public space conserve and improve urban environments develop technologies of sustainable food production foster community engagement and create neighbourhood solidarity Drawing on in depth case studies and social movement theory Claire Nettle provides a new empirical and theoretical understanding of community gardening as a site of collective social action This provides not only a more nuanced and complete understanding of community gardening but also highlights its potential challenges to notions of activism community democracy and culture Commoning the City Derya Özkan, Güldem Baykal Büyüksaraç, 2020-03-10 This collection seeks to expand the limits of current debates about urban commoning practices that imply a radical will to establish collaborative and solidarity networks based on anti capitalist principles of economics ecology and ethics The chapters in this volume draw on case studies in a diversity of urban contexts ranging from Detroit USA to Kyrenia Cyprus on urban gardening and land stewardship collaborative housing experiments alternative food networks claims to urban leisure space migrants appropriation of urban space and workers cooperatives collectives The analysis pursued by the eleven chapters opens new fields of research in front of us the entanglements of racial capitalism with enclosures and of black geographies with the commons the critical history of settler colonialism and indigenous commons law as a force of enclosure and as a strategy of commoning housing commons from the urban scale perspective solidarity economies as labour commons territoriality in the urban commons the non territoriality of mobile commons the new materialist and post humanist critique of the commons debate and feminist ethics of care The School Garden Curriculum Kaci Rae Christopher, 2019-04-23 Sow the seeds of science and wonder and inspire the next generation of Earth stewards The School Garden Curriculum offers a unique and comprehensive framework enabling students to grow their knowledge throughout the school year and build on it from kindergarten to eighth grade From seasonal garden activities to inquiry projects and science skill building children will develop organic gardening solutions a positive land ethic systems thinking and instincts for ecological stewardship The world needs young people to grow into strong scientifically literate environmental stewards Learning gardens are great places to build this knowledge yet until now there has been a lack of a multi grade curriculum for school wide teaching aimed at fostering a connection with the Earth The book offers A complete K 8 school wide framework Over 200 engaging weekly

lesson plans ready to share Place based activities immersive learning and hands on activities Integration of science critical thinking permaculture and life skills Links to Next Generation Science Standards Further resources and information sources A model and guide for all educators The School Garden Curriculum is the complete package for any school wishing to use ecosystem perspectives science and permaculture to connect children to positive land ethics personal responsibility and wonder while building vital lifelong skills AWARDS FINALIST 2019 Foreword INDIES Education Applied Research Methods in Public and Nonprofit Organizations Mitchell Brown, Kathleen Hale, 2014-08-13 A complete guide to applied research featuring original data and detailed case studies Applied Research Methods in Public and Nonprofit Organizations takes an integrative approach to applied research emphasizing design data collection and analysis Common case studies across chapters illustrate the everyday nature of research and practical exercises reinforce concepts across all sections of the text The book includes forms and formats for data collection and analysis plus writing excerpts that demonstrate results reporting and presentation The accompanying instructor's guide features assignments discussion questions and exercises referenced in the book and the authors own data sets are available for use online Conducting research analyzing results and synthesizing the findings for key stakeholders is fundamental to the study and practice of public and nonprofit management Aligned with management curriculum for both sectors the book focuses on the common ground these organizations share when it comes to planning conducting and using research in day to day professional activities The original research examples presented are in the context of this shared commonality including resource acquisition evaluative processes and future planning through the lens of common social policy issues facing leaders today Topics include The research process and applied research designs Applied research questions and literature Data collection in the field and survey research Data analysis writing and presentation The examples highlight intergovernmental institutions in which public service occurs and provide expanded reach to nonprofit organizations and the networked collaborations that make up a significant portion of today's public service For students and practitioners of public administration public policy and nonprofit management Applied Research Methods in Public and Nonprofit Organizations provides a comprehensive reference to this critical skillset

Resources in Education , 1996 The Best Place Danya Fast, 2023-11-10 The Best Place examines how overlapping housing mental health and addictions and overdose crises alongside their accompanying public health interventions and the frenetic pace of urban renewal have shaped forms of life and death among young people who use drugs in the city of Vancouver Canada Greening in the Red Zone Keith G. Tidball, Marianne E. Krasny, 2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems

Urban Gardening as Politics Chiara Tornaghi, Chiara Certomà, 2018-07-11 While most of the existing literature on community gardens and urban agriculture share a tendency towards either an advocacy view or a rather dismissive approach on the grounds of the co optation of food growing self help and voluntarism to the neoliberal agenda this collection investigates and reflects on the complex and sometimes contradictory nature of these initiatives It questions to what extent they address social inequality and injustice and interrogates them as forms of political agency that contest transform and re signify the urban Claims for land access the right to food the social benefits of city greening community conviviality and insurgent forms of planning are multiplying within policy advocacy and academic literature and are becoming increasingly manifested through the practice of urban gardening These claims are symptomatic of the way issues of social reproduction intersect with the environment as well as the fact that urban planning and the production of space remains a crucial point of an ever evolving debate on equity and justice in the city Amid a mushrooming over positive literature this book explores the initiatives of urban gardening critically rather than apologetically The contributors acknowledge that these initiatives are happening within neoliberal environments which promote among other things urban competition the dismantling of the welfare state the erasure of public space and ongoing austerity These initiatives thus can either be manifestation of new forms of solidarity political agency and citizenship or new tools for enclosure inequality and exclusion In designing this book the progressive stance of these initiatives has therefore been taken as a research question rather than as an assumption The result is a collection of chapters that explore potentials and limitations of political gardening as a practice to envision and implement a more sustainable and just city

City Bountiful Laura J. Lawson, 2005-05-30 The social history of American cities would not be complete without a full account of the rise of community open spaces Lawson does exactly this by providing a compelling and poetic account of the history and making of urban gardens Combining solid scholarship with engaging images of the gardens and stories of their makers this book sheds new light on the value of urban open space More important it explains why community gardens need to stand alongside city parks as permanent open spaces Essential reading for community developers and landscape architects as well as anyone who ventures outside enthusiasm and shovel in hand to improve their local environment Mark Francis author of Urban Open Space and Village Homes The definitive history of the past hundred years of America s experience with community gardens A labor of love by a garden activist the book appears at a most appropriate time today our city dwellers and suburbanites are retreating onto carpets of passive open space tended by homeowner associations and lawn care outfits Lawson thoughtfully analyzes the weaknesses of community gardens when used as a response to social crises and by contrast investigates community gardens as an alternative to today s managed care of open space Her history clearly presents a way of community living that we can elect if we choose her wisdom Sam Bass
