Coteaching Reading Comprehension Strategies In Secondary School Libraries:

Coteaching Reading Comprehension Strategies in Secondary School Libraries Judi Moreillon, 2012-01-20 This companion volume to Collaborative Strategies for Teaching Reading Comprehension which covered lower grades completes the educational arc by focusing on adolescent readers in grades 6-12 School Libraries Matter Mirah J. Dow, 2013-06-17 As school districts across the United States increasingly question the need for trained librarians this collection of research based evidence helps make the case for a state licensed librarian in every school While serving on the AASL legislation committee Mirah Dow recognized the urgent need to utilize research based evidence to prove school librarians are much more than an educational luxury This collection is the result It brings together school library research studies and findings from the past decade and draws connections to how they can be applied to situations and questions that occur in practice Taken as a whole the research underscores that state licensed school librarians are a necessity for 21st century students Chapters center on important research studies from the past decade that examine data and locate school libraries within operational contexts Methodologies are explained and findings summarized while notes clarify practical applications for school librarians Because each chapter includes a connection to broad realms of theoretical influence in the social sciences the work will also be relevant to educators and public policymakers arming them to better communicate research based links between investments in school libraries and student learning outcomes The Many Faces of School Library Leadership Sharon Coatney, Violet H. Harada, 2017-03-29 Completely revised with even more contributions added by practicing school librarians this book further examines the responsibility to lead in many areas and identifies the real world day to day application of established theory and best practices In today's educational landscape school librarians need to lead the way in many areas including advocacy literacy technology curriculum vision collaborative instruction and intellectual freedom All of these areas are vital to building and sustaining a school library program that enhances and encourages student achievement as well as to providing enhanced services to students and faculty This revised edition of The Many Faces of School Library Leadership offers invaluable insights from recognized leaders in the field of school librarianship that detail leadership roles embraced by accomplished practitioners and consider the research regarding best practices An essential read for practicing school librarians as well as for pre-service school librarians it offers today's school librarians actionable advice for strengthening their roles underlining their value and protecting their future all while boosting student learning and achievement The expert guidance and perspectives in this book will bolster those who are facing enormous challenges to meet them and allow school library staff to protect their jobs and to save school library programs from extinction

Focusing on EFL Reading Rahma Al-Mahrooqi, Adrian Roscoe, 2014-06-02 Reading a complex and multi-faceted skill is essential for life and academic success While its mysteries still baffle first language research the nature of reading in a foreign language presents an even greater puzzle However given reading's importance for EFL students who study their specializations in English and whose future employment may depend on their competence in it researchers must continue to investigate foreign language reading and devise ways of improving students capacity for it Hence this book with its thorough coverage of up to date theory practice and research will be of great value in today s educational context As they strive to understand reading and help EFL students to acquire it researchers and language teachers will find much of value here

Inquiry and the Common Core Violet H. Harada, Sharon Coatney, 2013-12-16 Practicing librarians and library educators demonstrate the power of inquiry to achieve the Common Core State Standards CCSS and promote school librarians as key partners in implementing this type of critical teaching and learning in K 12 schools With the adoption of the CCSS in most of the nation s schools educators and administrators at K 12 schools have a pressing need to find the best ways to implement these rigorous and comprehensive standards that challenge students to understand informational text and digital content at increasing levels of complexity This text provides faculty with much needed support in achieving this critical goal thoroughly describing inquiry learning and how it links to the CCSS The authors nearly 30 contributors total comprising librarians library media specialists educational leaders teachers from the kindergarten level to college professors and administrators each with direct experience and knowledge regarding the subject matter explain how the standards emphasis on in depth investigation and evidence based reading and writing skills dovetail perfectly with inquiry based learning initiatives Acclaimed thought leaders such as Jean Donham Kristin Fontischiaro Leslie Maniotes and Barbara Stripling clearly define and illuminate the librarian s role in school initiatives today and share lesson plans that have been proven effective in actual practice Collaborative Models for Librarian and Teacher Partnerships Kennedy,

Kathryn, 2013-07-31 Once considered designated storytellers modern library professionals are emerging as experts in technology integration information literacy and curriculum alignment Though their collaboration with technology specialists and administrators continues to be a struggle Collaborative Models for Librarian and Teacher Partnerships brings together best practices and innovative technological approaches in establishing the media specialist teacher partnership Highlighting theoretical concepts of case based learning knowledge repositories and professional learning communities this book is an essential practical guide for professional development specialists administrators library media specialists as well as teacher educators interested in maintaining and developing collaborative instructional partnerships using emerging digital technologies

Growing Schools Debbie Abilock, Kristin Fontichiaro, Violet H. Harada, 2012-06-11 Presenting examples of school librarians leading professional learning in numerous contexts and for diverse learning goals with remarkable success this book will inspire other practitioners to initiate and refine professional learning in their schools and districts School administrators are recognizing that school librarians are ideal to lead professional development because they service the entire school network from the students and faculty to families and the community As a national downturn in educational funding is diminishing districts ability to optimally staff libraries investing energy in professional development is a sound strategy to bring information literacy skills to every student especially in buildings with part time librarians or districts with only a single librarian of record Growing Schools Librarians as Professional Developers stands apart from other works as the first book that directly addresses the potential role of the school librarian as a staff developer Within the chapters the authors relate their professional development journeys collectively representing experience within K 12 public and private institutions district and regional units and universities across the United States and Canada The work provides various approaches to professional development with a range of processes and techniques that have been proven effective in different contexts and in achieving diverse learning goals Practitioners at the building and district levels as well as school principals state and district personnel and library educators will find this book insightful and instructive Information Literacy and Information Skills Instruction Nancy Pickering Thomas, Sherry R.
