Strauss,1994 China's Program of Weapons Modernization and Proliferation Air War College,2015-12-23 China is changing its armed forces from a large manpower intensive force using low to medium technology weapons to a smaller but more modern force The Chinese are financing the conversion by shifting from a weapons export program based on ideology to one based on profit with relatively few exceptions They are using the profits to acquire high technology weapons from the former Soviet Union This new approach has been successful and their influence in Asia is growing China's Economy Looks Toward the Year 2000: Economic openness in modernizing China ,1986 China's Economy Looks Toward the Year 2000 ,1986 China's Proliferation Practices and Role in the North Korea Crisis U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2005 Nuclear Weapons Proliferation in the Next Decade Peter Lavoy,2020-09-23 The intensification of the Iranian and North Korean nuclear crises has created new fears that deteriorating security conditions in the Middle East Northeast Asia and other regions will lead additional countries to seek their own nuclear arsenals in the years to come This special issue examines the factors that are likely to shape nuclear weapons proliferation over the next decade The internationally recognized authors of this issue many of whom are prominent scholars and others of whom have held influential governmental positions with responsibility for countering nuclear proliferation bring to light the conditions and events that might drive new countries to pursue nuclear weapons the indicators and cautionary signs that can provide early warning that a country is interested in building nuclear bombs and the policy and military measures that can be adopted to prevent or at least dissuade new proliferators The introductory chapter develops a novel analytical approach focusing on the role of nuclear myths and mythmakers and the subsequent chapters draw on this approach to help analysts better understand and policy makers better manage nuclear proliferation over the next ten years Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Security Review Commission U.S.-China Security Review Commission,2002 Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Security Review Commission ,2002-07
