Pollington,2007-06-07 Many books have covered the topics of architecture materials and technology New Architecture and Technology is the first to explore the interrelation between these three subjects It illustrates the impact of modern technology and materials on architecture The book explores the technical progress of building showing how developments both past and present are influenced by design methods It provides a survey of contemporary architecture as affected by construction technology It also explores aspects of building technology within the context of general industrial social and economic developments The reader will acquire a vocabulary covering the entire range of structure types and learn a new approach to understanding the development of design Delivery by Design Zachary Spicer,2022-08-03

Municipalities in Canada have an array of servicing options available to them when producing or delivering local services such as water public transit and waste collection including in house provision or privatization However services may also be contracted or jointly delivered with neighbouring municipalities a practice some local governments are increasingly gravitating towards Delivery by Design sheds light on this practice in Canadian local government by examining three crucial questions Why do municipalities cooperate What is being shared or contracted with other governments And what leads to successful or unsuccessful relationships between municipalities The book finds that Canadian municipalities are cooperating fairly regularly but are doing so in a small number of policy areas mainly emergency and administrative services Zachary Spicer examines these types of relationships explaining how they will be crucial in the future as local services are increasingly shared or jointly delivered by municipal governments Relying on extensive data and document collection surveys and a series of primary interviews with local decision makers Delivery by Design explores the nature of interlocal collaboration in Canada mapping out a relatively understudied process in local governance Selling Places Stephen Ward,2005-10-09 This highly illustrated book describes how places have been sold or promoted to make themselves attractive locations as holiday resorts business centres or residential areas Explains the history of current practice using world wide examples Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning Thomas L.
